Before his time with the County club, Rodney Smith had been a successful opening bat in Club cricket. He played for Heckmondwike second eleven as a 14 year old

He played for Hartshead Moor, as a professional, in the Bradford League in 1969 and 1970. He then switched to the Central Yorkshire League with Liversedge and Heckmondwike, whom he captained to six trophies in 11 years. He received a benefit in 1982 from the Club, a rare event outside the first class game.

Rodney Smith played five first-class games and three List A games and did not deliver a ball in any of them. But he was an exact contemporary of Don Wilson and Geoff Cope was also in the side at that time.
