Jim Love's major claim to fame was in the final of the 1987 Benson & Hedges Cup. He was 75* and the scores were level (244/6) with opponents Northants (244/7) when it was established that Yorks would win with fewer wkts lost, provided a wicket did not fall from the last delivery of the game. So Jim Love made no attempt to score. Instead, he jabbed down on the delivery and just about kept it out to give Yorks their first victory in a Lord's final in 18 years.

He began in club cricket with Kirkstall educational (then Leeds CL) and Leeds (Yorkshire CL). Later, he went into coaching and moved to Scotland, where he played in Edinburgh and 15 List A Matches for Scotland (1992/93 to 1998).he was in charge of the Scotland team in the 1999World Cup. He also played Minor Counties cricket for Lincs from 1990 to 1992. He receive Lincs cap in 1990.

He later returned to Yorks and became cricket professional at Ampleforth College and co-ordinator of three of the county's Junior teams.

His had received his Yorks cap 1980 and had a benefit in 1989.

He was the first Yorks player to represent England in ODIs but not in Test cricket.

565) David M ROSS – No biographical details are available for this player. He played all his county cricket in 1972. His highest score (44) and his best bowling figures (4/44) both came in the Minor Counties Championship Challenge match against Beds at Barnsley CC on 15-17 Sept 1972.

He received his Yorks cap in 1978. The term “swashbuckling” could have been invented for Stevenson in full flow. He began his cricket career with Barnsley CC before joining Yorks.

Two incidents illustrate his attitude. In an ODI in Sydney in 1979/80, he scored 28 when England were 129/8, chasing 164 and saw his side home by two wickets. He had earlier taken 4/33, at that time, the best ODI figures for England on debut.

The other example came at Edgbaston in the County Championship in 1982 when he made 115, batting at number 11 with Geoff Boycott. Yorks were 143/9 but they added 149 for the final wicket and this remains Yorks` record stand for that wicket to this day.

He left Yorks to play for Northants in 1987 but left Wantage Rd after just one season/ He never had the best of health and died at 58.
