

Chippenham v. Trowbridge.—A match between these teams took place on the ground of the latter on Saturday, and resulted in a draw. For the visitors J. Brotherhood was the most conspicuous, and his brilliantly played 32 (not out), included two 3's, and eight 2's. F. H. Porter's 17 (not out) was of the greatest assistance to his side. The captain (S. S. Clark) was the only other player who obtained double figures. The home team, after putting together 150, declared their innings closed, hoping they would be able to dispose of Chippenham before "time," but their anticipations, thanks to Brotherhood and Porter, were not realised. SWINTON RANGERS v. MR. STUART CAMPBELL'S XI.—Mr. Campbell brought a very strong XI. to play against the Rangers on Saturday, including four Oxford county players, and it was not surprising, therefore, that they won by 19 runs. The visitors went to the wickets first, but only made 54. Kemp batted well, and but for his assistance they would have fared very badly. This score, however, proved too much for the Rangers, who were all disposed of for 35. Bassett almost unplayable on the very tricky wicket. Reynoldson went in second wicket, and carried out his bat for 9, and Riddiford and Affick made 7 and 6 respectively; but neither rightly made 6 between them. In the second innings Mr. Campbell's XI. did better, making 125; Bassett, Innocent, Rogers, and Kemp batted well. The Rangers lost 5 wickets for 22. Read and Horns howled well for the home team, the former taking 8 wickets for 28 runs, and the latter 10 for 62. Score:—

THE SEASON'S AVERAGES.

The Swindon Rangers Cricket Club brought a very successful season to a close on Saturday. Out of the twelve matches played seven have been won, one drawn, and four lost. The matches won were against the R.A.C. and Farinndon twice, Mr. Stuart Campbell's XI., Swindon G.W.R., Mr. Savernake, the one drawn against Cirencester Town, and the four lost against Cirencester Town, Mr. Campbell's XI., Savernake, and G.W.R. The club also played two Wednesday XI. matches against Cricklade, both being won easily. The averages are good considering the wet wickets on which the players have had to bat this year. Reynolds heads the list with an average of 25.44, Harvie heads the list 21.50. Barnes, Riddiford, and Affleck have also averages of double figures. In bowling Finch is top, done best, taking 42 wickets as a cost of 10.28 each; improvement on his last year's average, for 11.42, a slight score made for the club was 80 by O. R. Toomer, the highest made by the club 276 for nine wickets. The club are much indebted to the many gentlemen who subscribed liberally towards the professional fund.

NORTH WILTS HERALD: FRIDAY 18 SEPTEMBER 1891

CIRENCESTER CRICKET CLUB.

The wind-up of the season was celebrated as usual with a festive evening at the Phoenix Hotel. The affair took place on Thursday in last week, and its success was in keeping with former years. Hosts catered capably. Mr. E. B. Haygarth, captain and hon. secretary, occupied the chair; and Mr. Charles Sewell the vice-chair. The company included the Ven. Archdeacon Hayward, Mr. J. C. Cripps, Mr. F. Sewell, Mr. Robert Anderson, Mr. H. L. Cooke, Mr. A. C. Cragg, &c. The loyal toasts were duly honored, and the Vicar responded for the Bishop and Clergy of the diocese. The Ven. Archdeacon proposed the health of Earl Bathurst; and the hope that his lordship might be spared for many a year to occupy the honorable post of president of the Cirencester Cricket Club was loudly applauded. Mr. E. C. Cripps proposed the toast of the evening "Success to the Cirencester Cricket Club," and Mr. Haygarth, in responding, urged the members to more frequent practice, so that they might show successful combination in the field. The health of Mr. Charles Sewell, late secretary, was warmly honored. Mr. S. Boulton and Mr. V. R. Allen, winners of the average bat and ball, were duly complimented and toasted. The health of Mr. H. L. Cooke, captain of the 2nd XI., was heartily drunk, amidst congratulations on his unbeaten record. Mr. Robert Anderson suitably proposed the health of the visitors; and Mr. Frank Sewell (New Zealand) responded—Other toasts followed during the course of the evening.

With a record of 11 matches played, of which 2 were won, 7 lost, and two drawn, it cannot be said that in the season which has just closed the first XI. have been successful, but it is a great satisfaction to note that the average bat has been won by that rising cricketer, Mr. S. Boulton, who batted consistently throughout the season, and has the excellent average of 37.7. Mr. Haygarth, the popular and able captain, coming next, with 23.9. Mr. V. R. Allen has the best bowling analysis, 7.72 runs per wicket, upon which he may be heartily congratulated; while Mr. W. G. Legg and Attewell follow him closely with the capital figures of 8.84 and 9.67 respectively.

CORSHAM CRICKET CLUB AVERAGES.—With the match against Lansdown the Corsham Cricket Club brought their 1891 season to a close. The club has quite kept up the reputation of 1890, the averages being by far the best since the formation of the club. Twenty-two matches have been played, out of which no less than 18 have been won, 2 lost and 2 drawn, both of the latter being in their favour. Victories have been won against the following clubs:—St. George's (2), Westbury (2), Calne (2), Melksham (2), Bristol Law Courts (2), Swindon G.W.R., Prior Park College, Bohemians, Lansdown, Bath Association, Box, Widoombe Institute and G. T. Mitten's XI. The two defeats were inflicted by Bath Association and Chippenham, the drawn matches being with Swindon and Chippenham. H. S. Goodwin heads the list with the splendid average of 50.8, but as he has not had a sufficient number of innings, the presentation bat (given by Major Jones for the highest average) will be awarded to S. P. Kinnear, who with the largest total of runs to his credit has the fine average of 36.6. E. G. Mayo comes next with 34, and has given good support in the few matches he has played in. C. F. Spackman, who takes fourth place, has increased his average from 21 last year to 31.7 this season, having compiled 635 runs. A very valuable addition to the team has been G. Beckless (Mr. Harris's professional) who has the very good average of 21.7, and has also been very useful as a bowler. J. F. Mayo and A. C. Kinnear (captain) both have averages of over 20, the latter batsman having greatly improved. In the bowling department Jesse Smith comes first, having taken 101 wickets for the average of 5.6 per wicket, a remarkably good performance, the sticky wickets suiting his bowling to a nicety. C. F. Spackman follows next, having secured 72 wickets at the cost of 6.8 per wicket. S. P. Kinnear takes third place with 43 wickets at the cost of 7.6 runs per wicket, while G. Beckless is fourth, having taken 27 wickets at the cost of 9.1 per wicket. The club have an average of 191 runs per innings, or 17 runs per man, while their opponents only average 68 per innings, or 6 runs per man. Two hundred has been passed no less than 8 times, and three batsmen have made the century. The following is the complete list of the batting and bowling averages of those who have played in 5 innings, and taken over 10 wickets:
