HEREFORD CONSTITUTIONAL C.C.

HEREFORD CONSTITUTIONAL C.C.

This club anticipate another good season this year. They have a full fixture card, containing home and home matches with all their old opponents, and one fresh one in Bromyard Grammar School. They also renew their engagements with Garnons. They will have to rely principally on their old players, assisted by A. Chapman, a name well known in the Hereford cricket world, and who hopes to turn out pretty regularly this esason, he being appointed vice-captain, and T.V.B. Wilmshust captain. Young blood in and around the city being apparently at a premium, it is a great pity that cricket enthusiasm hereabouts should be at such a low ebb. Most of the young fellows nowadays are apparently too "slack" to work at the nets to gain proficiency with either bat or wall, and unless a "change comes o'er the scene" soon, in a few years cricket will die out in the old city.

This club have mado a new departure this season in arranging to practice and play all their home matches at. The Field," Hampton Bishop, the players preferring the quiet of a country ground to the noisy surroundings of Widemarsh, their old fighting ground for many seasons. They commence practice (weather permitting) to-day instituted in the only necessary qualifications being that they must be "True Blues" and keen on the game. Fixtures:—

LEDBURY.

The Ledbury C.C. enter upon the forthcoming season with every prospect of a successful one. All the old players are available, and with the assistance of a certain amount of young blood things look quite bright. The club will have the assistance of Mr J W Hewitt, a gentleman who in the past has rendered yeonan service. The writer had the pleasure upon one occasion of seeing him knock up a beautiful 124 aganhst Ross We trust Mr Hewitt has many more knocks like that in reserve Williams has again been signed on as pro., and the ground looks better than at any time during the career of the club. With Mr C. B. Masefield again leading on his merry men, the success of the leadership is assured. Mr A. C. Ford retains the vice-captaincy and cricket secretaryship, and Mr W. G. Davis will once more have charge of the "young uns." A larger programme of matches has been arranged, and include the strongest teams in the adjacent towns, etc.—upwards of 20 games. We trust the interest taken in the grand old game will be keener than ever, and that the season will be more genial as regards sun than was the case in 1909.

The club is giving a bat this season for the batsunan with the best average, also a ball for the best bowler. Sir John Verdin, Bart., has consented to become our president again, and Mr J. W. LUDLOW AND SOUTH SHROPSHIRE.

The prospects for the coming season of the Ludlow and South Shropshire Cricket Club are very good. The ground is being got in order. very good. The ground is being got in order. It has been protected during the winter, and the wickets ought to be good. Practice will not commence until May. The team for the season will be had fairly strong one. The first eleven will be chosen from the Rev H. F. Hastings, Messrs J. S. Leake, Frank Leake, Ralph Leake, R. H. Dodgson, T. Luce. Hanar Jones, C. E. N. Shorting, F. Milbank, H. W. Baker, E. Turley, and Faircloth (pro.). There are several other promising young players. They will have the assistance of the two new masters of the Grammar School, Messrs Breakspear and Hooper. Faircloth, who scored over 1,000 runs last season, has been re-engaged as professional, while the club will be assisted by Mr. I. Luce, the last season, has been re-engaged as professional, while the club will be assisted by Mr T. Luce, the Wiltshire County wicket-keeper, and will be a great help to the club. The three brothers Leake will play in most matches. Ralph Leake is a very useful bowler. Baker also bowled well last season for the Grammar School. The bewling will be stronger than last year, and with Faircloth, Turley, R. Leake, R. H. Dodgson, and the masters from the Grammar School, the club should do well. The club will lose the valuable services of Mr F. H. Sitwell, who has left the district. The financial position of the club is more satisfactory. They began the last season with a debit halance of £14 18s 8d, the receipts amounted to £133 16s 4d, and payments £137 18s, leaving a debit balance of £14 18s 8d. There were subscriptions outstanding 15s 6d. The bowling green cost nearly £20, and has been paid for, and a sum of £5 guaranteed for that has yet to be paid, and that will leave the club with a small balance in hand. The officials of the club are :—Captain, Mr F. Milbank: vice-captains, Mr C. E. N. Shorting and the Rev H. F. Hastings; captain 2nd XI., Mr C. H. Corbishley; hon. treasurer, Mr G. LUDLOW GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

BROMFIELD.

The Bromfield, Cricket Club , has held its annual meeting. Mr Mackay has been elected captain, Mr A. Horsburg vice-captain, Mr A. Poole secretary. The team will be about the same as last year. A number of matches have been arranged, and it is probable they will play more matches this year.

USK.

The annual meeting of the above club has just been held, at which Mr F. Hill, probably the best all-round player in the team, has been elected canall-round player in the team, has been elected captain, and under him the club are looking forward to a successful season. At any rate the captain will show his men a very keen example in all departments. Mr Hill captained the team about five years ago, but was not then quite so successful in that position as he was expected to be. Last year the engagement of a groundsman instead of a groundsman and professional proved quite satisfactory, and the ground was kept in a better state than for some years past. Fortunately, although it takes about $100 a year to run the club, the finances are in a sound condition, and the season is started with a balance in hand, and there was an increase in the membership of nearly 30 last year. Mr A. G. Wallace, the energetic hon secretary, has arranged a capital list of fixtures, and the club had the bonour of being asked to open a new ground at Abercarne on May 7th. All the players of last year are available, and a new member, who will probability be of greatassistance, is Mr.E.St. Hill Davies, who won his place in the Eastbourne College Eleven. Fielding is his special forte, but he is also said to be a fair but and a good change bowler. There are two or three promising members of the Second Eleven who will also probably be given an extended trial. Lewis has again been engaged as groundsman, and he took great interest in his work last year. The ground, with the exception of Newfast year. The ground, with the exception of Newfast year. The majority he best in the county, and is most pleasantly situated, and that is the reason why the majority of the matches are played at Lek, as will be seen by the following list of fixtures:—

Sept. 17—Crumlin, at Usk. Mr H. Humphreys. J.P., presided over a fairly good attendance at the annual meeting held at the Three Salmons Hotel.

The Chairman, who continues to take a lively interest in the club, was unanimously re-elected president, vice-presidents re-appointed: a general committee, match committee, and working committee were also appointed, the match committee being the captain, bon. secretary, the Rev. being the captain. bon. secretary, the Rev. H. B. Robinson, Mr Theodore Scaton, and Mr H. P. Barnes.

Mr H. C. Davies being unable to accept the position of captain, Mr F. Hill was unanimously elected captain, and he appointed Mr H. C. Davies as vice. Mr A. G. [Wallace was appointed hon. secretary and treasurer, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded him for his past services. Other appointments made were:—Second Eleven. Captain, Mr E. Mayherry; hon. secretary, Mr W. T. Price. Mr S. A. Hiley was appointed captain and hon secretary of the bowling club.

Mr Wallace presented the annual report and statement of accounts. He said the number of members had increased from 85 to 109. The first team played 23 matches last year, of which ten were won, eleven lost, and two drawn. The Seconds played twelve, won six, lost five, and drew one. The accounts showed a small halance in hand. The report and accounts were adopted. As a result of the recent concert. Mr Wallace announced that the profits would amount to over £10, which was considered most satisfactory, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to all the artistes who kindly gare their services, and Mr H. G. Powell promised to convey the same to the members of "the Dandies."

The unpires and scorers were also thanked for their services. The very best wishes of the club were expressed for the future career of two members, Messis R. Marfell and R. V. Mundy, who are proceeding to Canada.

proceeding to Canada.

ROSS.

Never were the prospects for the coming cricket season more promising. Both in Ross and the sur-nounding villages everything points to a prosperous rounding villages everything points to a prosperous summer. The newly formed Ross and District Cricket League augurs well to create a keener interest in the game, and some interesting encounters are anticipated among the eight clubs that have joined that combination. A further incentive to those clubs is the presentation to the League of a most handsome challenge bowl, the joint gift of the President (Mr H. L. Shaw), Mr W. H. Wintle (Mitcheldean), and Mr R. Pashley (Bishopswood). The eight clubs entered are Ross-Second Eleven. Goodrich, Bishopswood, Perrystone, Upton Bishop, Garway, and Ruardean. As for the Ross First Eleven, most of the old players are available, with several new ones, Mr T. A. Grese, a solicitor, having joined the club, and if he is as good a cricketer as he is footballer, golfer, and roller skater, he should prove a most useful acquisition to the club. The new professional hails from Yorkshire, his name being Clare, coming as he does from the Burnley Club, which has been the home of many first-class cricketers. According to his testimonials he is a really useful all-round man, and promises to be a sore thorn in the fiesh of those teams which are to meet the town club during the coming season. His average last season worked out at 28 runs each for 23 innings And in spite of an injury which prevented him taking a full share in the attack he accounted for 51 wickets at the cost of 11 runs each. In the 1908 season he averaged 21 runs for 10 innings and 74 wickets at 9 per wicket. An excellent list of fixtures has been arranged for the summer, most of the old opponents figuring in that list. Mr W. T. W. Jeffery again takes on the reins as captain, and with such excellent material at his disposal a far more prosperous season than last should result. The Second Eleven should have a good run, for through the Weston Club not taking an active parton the field of play this summer, it is believed that several of those players will join the ranks of the second string, a fact which should greatly strengthen the side not only in wielding the willow, but in the trundling of the ball and in their fielding. The season commences in earnest this day (Saturday), when the First Eleven of the Ross Cricket Club is to be opposed by a team of fourteen chosen from the clubs in the League. Both sides will be strongly represented and a keen game is anticipated. The League team will be as follows:—Bishopswood, R. Pashley, A. J. Mantle; Garway, J. Hughes, H. Hemming; Upton Bishop, E. F. Smith, T. Teague; Perry stone, W. D. Thornley, G. F. Lyndon, junn; Goodrich, H. Fowler, W. Dove; Ruardean, J. Whittington, H. Read; Mitcheldean, W. H. Wintle, Rev. C. L. C. Buee. The Ross Eleven will be selected from W. T. W. Jeffery, C. Montgomery, H. West, Rev. J. Alban, C. C. Kelly, H. N. S. Thomas, T. A. Grose, Clare, S. Morgan, W. Bevan, P. C. Bennett, and C. J. Gammond. The Second Eleven are due at Brockhampton, and there another keen struggle for supremacy is expected. That is the reason why a representative of the second team does not appear in the League contingent against Ross First Eleven. Several players in spite of the bitter cold winds have been seen at the nets at the Park, and all ready the old-time interest in the game is again beginning to assert itself. A full li

The prospects of the Leominster Cricket Club are now in a more prosperous condition. The club was now in a more prosperous condition. The club was unfortunate enough to finish last season with a debt of £30, but owing to the kindness of friends the club will start with a balance in hand of 30s. There are a few new players available, and a new pronamed Charles McGregor has been engaged. He played for Wicklow County, Ireland, last season, and comes with a very good record. He is a fast bowler, which the club badly need. F Smith has been elected captain, P. Heins hon treasurer, and and H. Train hon secretary, with R. Morrow assistant secretary. The annual nieeting of the Monmouthshire Cricket Club was held at the King's Head, Newport, on Wednesday, Colonel Walwyn in the chair. There was a good attendance. The annual report, details of which have already appeared in these columns, was regarded as satisfactory, and on the motion of Mr F. Phillips, Newport, they were adopted. Mr Phillips paid a tribute to the Welsh Rugby Football Union for their donations to the club. The outlook for next senson was, he said, promising. He thought there was better sporting cricket in the Mimor Counties competition than with the first-class teams who often played for a "gate." The following officials were elected:—President, Viscount Tredegar; team selection committee, L. H. Hernby (Newport), A. Butter (Panteg), L. F. Steadman (Newport), M. Harris (Ahergavenny), C. L. Clay (Chepstow), Dr. Griffiths (Abercarn), and L. Borestier Walker; Captain, Mr E. S. Phillips, Newport. It was reported that several members of the club had promised to double their annual subscriptions, and that Mr J. C. Hanburr had subscribed £175 to the funds. Mr E. S. Phillips was specially thanked for his services to the club. It was reported that Malthy, now of Tredegar, late of Notts, would probably play for the club this season.

CRICKET NOTES.

The Ross Club have every reason to be pleased with their opening games of the season. Against a representative team of fourteen players from the Ross and District Amateur League they scored a decisive victory, largely due to the splendid bowl-decisive victory, largely due to the splendid bowling and batting of Clare, the new professional, who met with a hearty and well-deserved reception.

The Second XI. journeyed to Brockhampton, in a friendly engagement, as the latter have not entered the League, or Hoss would have had two very useful points in hand. All the teams that are so hospitably entertained at Brockhampton will be pleased to find them in the competition next year.

pleased to find them in the competence year.

Ross v. League XIV.—This match aroused keen interest amongst the clubs in the newly formed League, and the representatives selected by each country team came prepared to give the premier club a good game. Had the weather been a little more congenial, a much larger attendance of supporters of the district clubs would certainly have been present. At it was more spectators were present than usually attended the opening match of the season, especially when it takes place in April, and we hope the Ross club will make this a permanent fixture, as it will, no doubt, become very popular.

Messrs R. Pashley and A. J. Mantle opened the innings for the Lengue against the bowling of Clare and Montgomery. The wicket was slow and runs were difficult to get. When three runs were scored Mantle failed to stop a fast one from Clare and W.
D. Thernly joined his captain. The pair had apparently got the measure of the bowling and began to open out a little, but Pashley unfortunately misjudged a delivery from Montgomery and was easily caught by Gammond. Hugbes was bowled by the Fre. for a single, when W. H. Wintle came in and eventually made the highest score for the League.
With H. Kowler in, a useful stand was made and a change of bowling which brought about the Rev.
J. Alban going on in place of Montgomery. Wintle blayed an attractive game, but he and H. Fowler both fell victims to the reverend gentleman, who seldom fails to render timely assistance when needed. Fowler hit freely and with H. Reid, who played a very steady innings, reached double figures. The Hev. C. L. C. Buee and G. F. Lyadon, jun., were both clean bowled by Clare without adding to their score. Three and four runs respectively were added by E.F. Smith and W. Dove, but H.
Hemmings was bowled by Jeffery before scoring.
A final stand by J. Whittington, who twice found the boundary, which had hithert not been crossed, added a very helpful 11 for the last wicket, when T. Teagne was dismissed without scoring and the imnings closed for a total of 75 runs.

Clare captured no less than 8 of the 13 wickets for only 21 runs. He adapted his bowling to the state of the wicket with admirable judgment.

and refreshments, kindly provided by the geneoue hospitality of Res to the howling of White

A capital fixture list is being arranged, and should provide interesting matches. Unfortunately there is a lack of members, and the secretary. Mr G. H. Shinn, will be pleased to have the names of any persons wishing to join the club. A moderate subscription only is charged, and there is no reason at all why the membership should not be greatly increased. The nets are fixed up every evening, so that every opportunity is afforded for practice. W. C. Wellicome has succeeded to the captaincy in place of A. F. Shinn, who has been appointed treasurer, whilst C. Jones and G. H. Shinn have been re-elected to the positions of sub-captain and hon. secretary respectively. Many of the old players have already put in several appearances at the nets for practice, and much good form has been displayed. One or two really good bowlers are very badly needed. Home matches will be played at Widemarsh as usual.

BY "IMPRESSIONIST."

On Monday the members of the Herofordshire County Club turned out to meet Usk Valley. At first it seemed as though we were in for a late start, hist is seemed as trange we want to the country a fashionable relaxation with many of the country ciuls about this part of the world. But wors, things we c in store for both clubs. "Someone a fashionable relaxation with many of the country chings we c in store for both clubs. "Someone had binnbered," for the visitors never turned up at all and the home cleven had perforce to seek consolation at the nets. Nor is this all. On Tuesdry the Usksiders actually turned up to meet their engagement and, of course, found no club to well-come them. How the bother arose about the dates. I do not know. Cricket secretaries are human, especially when the prefix henorary appears bettere their names, and we can only wonder who was to blame—Hereford or Usk.

So poor old Mordecai Sherwin is dead after a long illness. How well I remember his burly figure behind the sticks for Notts in the palmy days of that country, and he also paid several visits to Widemarsh in the cighties as a member of the M.C.C. Sherwin in his day was one of the most popular members of the Notts team, and acted as county captain at one time. He was been at Kimberley, about six miles from Nottingham, in February, 1851, and came into prominence with the Bassford Ferk C.C., and was given one trial for the county against Gloucestershire in 1876. He came into the team as its regular wicketkeeper in 1882 vice the late Fred Wild, and played in first-class cricket for sixteen years, during which time he brought about the dismissal of 607 batsmen, making 515 catches and stamping 182. He was particularly good on the leg-side. Sherwin wes particularly good on the leg-side. Sherwin wes particularly good on the leg-side. Sherwin was particularly good on the hears were looking hopeless for Notts.

I well remember one incident that occurred in connection with Sherwin and the Hercfordshire.

M.C.C. match of 1897. Those good batsmen, C. J. L. Abbet and J. E. Cuff, were piling on the rons, and the best country on a new occasions, once bringing about the defeat of Middlesex when mathers were looking hopeless for Notls.

I well remember one incident that occurred in connection with Sherwin and the Herciordshire.

M.C.C. match of 1697. Those good batsmen, C. J. L. Abbet, and J. E. Cuf., were piling on the runs, and the old Notis hand had evidently had about rough of it towards the close of their productive partnership, and so on the pretext that the wicket was a couple of yards sinct Master Sherwin retired to the pavillion to-have it measured and what was of still greater impertance—get a drink. What a statesman was lost in the old wicketkeeper!

The schools from the Cathedral cities of Worcester and Hercford met at Wyeside on Saturday. The batting was on the whole disappointing and the scoring ruled on the low side. However the Hercford boys pulled through. All the first few Worcester men seemed much too anxious to make runs, and no one seemed to hat with any confidence, or seemed likely to stay, except A. L. Ware, a lett hander who was in a long time for a useful 28. On his departure, the wickets again fell fairly fast, the next man coming out without any increase in the score, which stood at 37. But Noyle made things look more hopeful for Worcester, He, comng in when the score was 41, soon hit up 19. They were all out for 74. Millyard and Wilmot both bowled well for Hercford, Millyard taking six wickets for 40 runs, and Wilmot four for 28 runs. Thillyard and Hopewell opened the Bereford innings, the former was caught in the slips (he had heen missed there two halls before), and the next over Hopewell played on, and things did not look very bright. But Dunkerley and Shelton started playing very free cricket, Dunkerley was bowled by Tweedie and his place taken by G. Millyard, who however was also bowled by Tweedie next over. As they joined Shelton and played a very useful innings of 18. The remaining batsmen succeeded in bringing the score toling, like Hercford hois runs, when the lead weather put a stop to fur

The Hereford Liberal Club has a useful batsman in the person of young Allan Watkins. He learnt his cricket at Hereford Cathedral School and is a good all round sportsman and a very nice fellow to boot. I hope Watkins won't see this note. On Saturday he carried out his bat for 35 towards the total of 76, which his club scored against Breinton and King's Acre. With C. S. Mitchell in wonderful form with the ball—he took six consentive wickets without a run being scored off his bowling—the Hereford Liberals won easily.

Apparently the Ross League is going strong and at his stage in the proceedings Ross 2nd XI. and Goodrich are bracketed top of the table. Two extraordinary matches were played within the confines of the competition on Saturday. In the one Garway were all skittled out for 9 runs by Bishopswood, Martle and Dee being in deadly form with the ball. In fact the top score was 2. The other game saw Goodrich beat Perrystone by a single run.

The visit of Ross to Ledbury has usually produced a good fight, although prior to Saturday it is four years since the visitors have defeated Ledbury on the lattice's enclosure. But Ross are going particularly "strong," this season having won hinteen of their sixteen fixtures and so Lodbury's defeat by 70 runs came hardly in the nature of a surprise—to Ross. Clare, for the winners, carried out his bat for 54 and the "pro." was largely responsible therefore for his club's success. Montgomery, who bowled well, had a curious experience when batting, for having survived an appeal for stumping, he was given out at the other end for a catch at the wicket.

The term which is now drawing to a close has been one of unqualified stocess for Malvern College, who have not lost a single match. There have been we draws, one, against Brasenese College, Oxford, being well in their favour, and the second, the Old Malvernian match, would probably have seen their leven defeated had not the rain stopped play. The Repton match resulted in a win for the eleven by an innings and 60 runs; while at Clifton the eleven won by nine wickets. The last match of the cason, v. Haverford, should enable them to main ain their record, since Haverford was beaten by Repton and only beat Clifton by two runs. In every match A. W. H. Scott and R. C. Burton have lowed consistently well, and C. N. Harding, D. X. Knight, A. C. P. Arnold, and G. C. Lucas have een particularly prominent in the batting line. I. S. Keville-Davies has made up for his lack of uccess in batting by the excellent way in which c has capitained the team, and he affords only nother illustration of how some public school aptains lose their form in the cases of captainey, rebably when he assists Hercfordshire later in the eason he will again be getting plenty of runs. As we of this year's team will be available next year, he Malvern College cricket prospects are very right.

The Hereford Excelsiors journeyed to Whitney-on-Wye on Thursday, a party of 16 taking advantage of Messrs Connelly's new motor charabane, a conveyance which for ease, comfort, and rapidity is bad to beat. Upon arriving at Whitney the visitors found that they were to have the honour of being the first team to play on the ground since it has been relaid. The ground is beautifully situated, and has pavilion, dressing room, etc., all complete. The local cricketers are indeed fortunatin having such a generous patron as Mr Peter Coats, who has defrayed the whole cost, and who also provides the ground and has it kept in order. In twelve month's time the playing pitch will be one of the best in the country.

Needless to say, the visitors were entertained in a most hospitable fashion, and cajoyed the outing very much, both from a playing and social stand-point. Coming to the game itself, which was a very keen one, Herbert on winning the tass sent his opponents in, and they were not disposed of until they had made 60 runs. Guest and Rass making useful scores, The Excelsiors started well, 50 being on the board at the fall of the fourth wicket, after which there was a mild collapse, until Johnson made the winning hit. The total eventually realised 69, leaving the Excelsiors winners by the narrow magin of nine runs.

HEREFORD TIMES: SATURDAY 6 AUGUST 1910-2

NORTH HEREFORDSHIRE HUNT V. SOUTE HEREFORDSHIRE HUNT.

Played at Hercford on Tuesday. Owing to rain play did not begin until past twelve, and so a very interesting game could not be finished. The scoring was very fast, the North in their innings scoring 270 in about an hour and 50 minutes. Time was called when they wanted only five runs to win. The fact that on this ground a bye that goes to the rails counts four helps a good deal to pile up the total score.

Contrasts and coincidences are of every day occurrence in cricket. On June 11th during the immorphile floods Garnons turned up short at Eardisley and were beaten on a saturated wicket. They were three or four short and picked up substitutes. On Saturday Eardisley turned up at Garnons short and also picked up substitutes but instead of a saturated ground there was a lovely wicket amid most picturesque surroundings. Eardisley, who I am told had not one of their regular bowlers owing to camps and holidays, were fortunate enough to win the toss and they knocked up 1138 of which C.J.L. Abbot contributed over 20. He carried his bat right through the innings and hit well in every direction. He received the most assistance from E. Soutigate. Garnons have unearthed a fast underhand bowler who met with considerable success. He is one of the "fast grounder" sort, a familiar style some 30 to 40 years ago and old stagers will remember how difficult it was to make runs from this sort of bowling. It will be, I faney, equally difficult to-day. Garnons made the necesary rims with two wickets to spare and for this they were mainly indebted to Dr. Steed and P.J.T. Marshall, backed up by some good stonewalling at a critical period. Too much praise cannot be bestowed on Dr. Steed, for he literally won the game for his side. The Eardisley howling and fielding was weak and catches went astray. It was a sporting the central tent of the centre of the fairly of the parties of the fairly were thalf an hour to enable a definite conclusion to be arrived.

hour to enable a definite conclusion to be arrived at.

Considerable interest attached to the visit of Leominster to Widemarsh on Thursday as the visitors had quite a strong side out, and the Hereford Excelsiors were naturally desperately enxious to beat them. As it happens the match was not only a one day match, but a one man's match. The Evelsiors certainly edid not lose, but did they win? I think not. It was rather one Excelsior that did all the damage and the fixture may be apt y described as G. Harding v. Leominster, for the remaining Excelsiors had precious little say in the matter. Eriefly summed up, Leominster could only get 59, towards which total young Morrow subscribed 32. Harding had seven wickets for 23; and on the Excels having their knock he carried his lat for 50 out of a total of 75. The lionhearted left-hander as is his wont hit very hard at times, but he early in the innings seemed to recognise that much of the responsibility would rest of his st oulders as he was careful to pick the righball tefore quietly planting it over the boundary for six. Had Harding failed it is painful to thin to what dimensions the home tokul would have shrunk, but all's well that end's well.

Ross spent their August Bank Holiday as befits such an august occasion. That is to say, they ran up the fine score of 315 for six wickets, declared their innings closed, and then dismissed Ludlow and South Shropshire for 117, thereby gaining a really handsome victory. That popular bird of passage, K. A. Woodward, helped to swell the Ross total by 136 of the best, and as he also secured five of the visitors' wickets he may be said to have put in a good day's work, holiday or no holiday. The club's Second XI. also did remarkably well on the previous Saturday, some capital batting by five of the side embling them to declare their innings at 225 for three, whilst Brockhampton's response fell one short of the hundred.

But the scoring was not so beavy in all the matches decided Ross way. For example, Ross St. Mary's could only get 20 against Ruardean Hill, and yet were still able to claim a victory by 14. P. Brain, who was top scorer for the Joses, subscribed a couple towards the magnificent total of half a dozen, Mr 'Extras' getting a single, so that the remaining ten batsmen only aggregated three between them. E. Jones and H. Yorath were the bowlers who reaped this rich harvest. Hearty congratulations to Lugwardine, who on Saturday succeeded in lowering the colours of Froeme Valley. This makes the latter club's first defeat this season, and they doubtless missed the little Worcester contingent. That keen cricketer and left-hand batsman, O. G. S. Croft, was top scorer for the visitors, and the success of his side by 30 runs was quite reminiscent of old times, when Lugwardine was the strongest village club in the county. Then as now the names of Emerson and Godwin were writ large in the tea.

In the match with Ross against the Falcon Touring Club, T. A. Grose was the "star" perfermer, his score of 60 not out for the home eleven in a large measure accounting for the score of 140. Against the deliveries of Clare and Smith the Falcons were easily disposed of for 54. Clare captured five wickets for 15 runs, and Smith five for 30.

Runs on this occasion were pretty scarce, each club totalling 65. For the home club A. J. Powell alone batted with any confidence, and his 22 proved an invaluable effort. On Kington going in only W. M. Partridge and F. P. Young could cope with the deliveries of P. D. Davies, and the tail collapsing in sensational fashion Presteign managed to make a tie of it. Two days previously, be it added. Presteign had gained a fairly casy victory at Kington. Harry Dent is, I am pleased to see, playing more regularly, and in consequence a good few runs are coming from his bat. He assisted Proome Valley to 57 on Saturday against Ross, and his runs went a long way towards winning the game for his side. That really fine batsman, A. Collier, was also in form, and he had made 73 before falling to a catch by Clare. Ross had previously played consistent cricket for 147, but the runs were not enough, the Valleyites winning by four wickets. Apparently C. W. Mackworth-Praed is a very promising cricketer, as he was easily top scorer for his father's eleven against Mr E. E. Morris's Eleven at Rotherwas on August 4th. At school at Eton I am told on good authority that he is one of the finest of our Public School shots, and that he will shortly make one of a team of Public Schoolboys to visit Canada. May he shoot up to the top of his form! Evidently possessed of a good eye, I hope he will make a first-class cricketer. Ludlow and South Shropshire, on Friday and Saturday of last week, gained capital victories over the Falcon Touring Club and the Ludlovians respectively. That the winners are going strong is fairly evident by the fact that although the Falcons cut up very badly against Ludlow, they gave Malvern a good hiding a day later. J. S. Leake had six of their wickets for 26, whilst Fabroloth, the club's professional, helped himself to 74 towards a total of 200. For the Ludlovians, that fine old crickete

Rain interfered with cricket to a considerable extent on Saturday in all parts of the country, but it did not prevent Holmer from giving Hampton Court a very pronounced whacking at Widemarsh. The visitors' total fell just two short of the century, despite a placky effort of 53 by T. R. Millichip. Holmer's first pair, F. W. Dutton and F. Watson were too many for the Hampton Court howlers, and at the close of play 169 were totalled for the loss of only four wickets. Watson, not content with scoring 66, had seven wickets. Presteign enjoyed a good win at the Grange, Leominster, on Saturday. The home club, who won the toss, compiled 92 runs, towards which number E. Smith and R. G. Morrow were the principal subscribers. The remaining members of the side could do next to nothing with the deliveries of W. M. Partridge, who had five wickets for 32 runs. On Presteign going in Partridge again distinguished himself, playing fine cricket for 66 and, with A. J. Powell (70) also in rare form, the issue was never in doubt. Presteign winning by 70 runs with one wicket still to go.

Rain fell in persistent fashion at Ross on Saturday morning. It was only a drizzle admittedly, but, as it seemed likely to go on to the crack of doon, the match between Ross and Stroud was abandoned. As the Stroud men had arrived at Ross—it was Clare's benefit—and as the afternoon furned out sine, it seemed a pity that the game could not have been played after all, more particularly as the visitors had brought a very strong side, including three county players.

A very remarkable game was that decided at Upton Bishop, where the home team met Bishopswood won by nine wickets, on the match being continued they only topped their opponents' score by five runs. This is surely somewhat of a record in its way, but the result was partly accounted for by the retirement of Pashley when the winning hit had been mude. By the way, I hear there is some talk of a fixture being arranged between the winners of the League and an eleven selected from the unsuccessful clubs. The game would excite some interest, I am inclined to think.

The match between Perrystone and Upton Bishop on August 6th, which resulted in a drawn game, Upton Bishop having tied with two wickets in hand, has been awarded to the latter by the League Committee on a protest against Perrystone for playing an ineligible player.

The Excelsions paid their first visit to Weobley on Thursday, and returned winners of an interest, and had 34 on the board with only one man out. However, after the separation of Boulter and Wynte't the end soon came, and Weobley were all out for 49. The Excelsions lost five wickets before the winning bit was made, after which Worthing, Andrews and Hepworth used the long handle to good effect. Worthing's score was very useful—he and Wilmshurst making a timely stand. The innings was declared at 87 for nine.

The Constitutional had a grand victory on Saturday last, heating Frome Valley plus the Worcester contingent on their own ground by six runs ten minutes before time. At their previous meeting this season the united forces won by 18 runs, so that this time the "Constants" had their revenge. This is, I believe, only the second time this season that the Valley has been beaten, Lugwardine then doire the trick. After the heavy vains the wicket on Saturday was naturally very lains the wicket on Saturday was naturally very slow and dead, and fast scoring was out of the question. The visitors batted first, and compiled 117, thanks chiefly to Harding, who once more proved himself the mainstay of the team by scoring 60 in good style. His figures included two 6's. Other members also got into double figures, but it was thought that, though the score was a respectable one, considering the state of the ground, it was hardly good enough to win. On the home side going in they were practically playing against time, having to score at the rate of one run a minute to win. This may not sound a very formidable task, but they just failed to pull off the game, though had some of the earlier balsmen heen a little more enterprising they might have succeeded in doing so. Possibly they found the Lowling of the visitors to Ross on Saturday, men been a little more enterprising they might have succeeded in doing so. Possibly they found the Lowling of the visitors ton good to be trifled with.

Ledbury were the visitors to Ross on Saturday, and, for a wonder, the weather allowed the game to be played out. The Ledburians were the first to bat, but their innings was void of anything starling, for C. B. Mascheld and W. Williams were the only batsmen to make much of a show with the bowling, and the venture closed for 112—quite a moderate score. Ross made an even more moderate display, and had to not been for a plucky effort of F. Tobitt their total would have been insignificant indeed. Ledbury, therefore, had their revenge, and gained a victory by 26 rans. James took five wickets at very small cost. The Moccas team were beaten by Eardisley last week end. Neither side was fully representative, the most noteworthy absentees being Sir Gooffrey Cornewall from the home side, and S. C. Divies, the veteran and popular Eardisley skipner. Moccas went in first and knocked up 50, M. Drummond showing the best form. Eardisley responded with 23, the chief contributors being C. J. L. Abbot, J. Guest, J. Bushell, and R. Marston.

On Saturday Kington went over to Eardisley and heat the home team by 16 runs, thus avenging their defeat earlier in the season. For the past two years ericket has very much improved at Kington. This may be due to the infusion of new blood, such as that of those sterling players Pabb and Clark, but I fancy it is a great deal due to the energy and spirit of B. Hamar and M. Partrislge. On Saturday the wicket was very soft and this accounted for the low scoring. Eardisley only kincked up 47 (Abbot 17). Kington responded with 30 (Partridge 18).

wenderful success, not one of the batsmen being condertable with his deliveries. On Tuesday Hay were the visitors to Endisley and they found Gwyther in wonderful form with the Lull. He secured eight wickets for ten runs and also the bat trick," and Hay were well whacked.

Hobiner ran up against H. K. Foster, the famous Worcestershire amateur, on Saturday at Lugwardine, where he was assisting the locals in the return match. Lugwardine won the tests and sent their opponents to but first. Goodwin and Dutton were the first pair, but they did not stay long, both being caught in the slips. The fickling of the Lugwardine men juss very fine, not a chance being missed. The Holmer lotal reached 72, Brockes playing well for 25. Lugwardine started badly, four wickets being down for 3 runs, but with the arrival of Foster some sensational hitting was witnessed. He treated all the bowlers alik, and with his partners just keeping up their end the score rose rapidly. He made the winning hi with a huge drive for 6. He continued to do all the scoring, and when the last wicket fell he wa not out with 117 to his credit, actually compiled out of a total of 128, the other players only scoring 9 between them, with two extras. Included in his score were eleven b's and six 4's. He had a splendid reception on his return to the pavilion, as without his assistance the home club woul have fared badly.

An interesting match was played at Stoke Elif. on Thursday afternoon, where, under ideal cricke conditions, the Froome Valley eleven entertxine the Hereford Excelsiors. Chi-fly owing to a sparkling innings by H. K. Foster, who, missel off his first ball from Harding, proceeded to lay on the wood in no uncertain fashion until he had made 91, the home tran's total realised 149, which, on a drying wicket, was far too nuch for the visiting team, who in an attempt to force the game were soon dismissed by Chester and Moss. Chester (a youth from the Worcester County ground) batted and bowled exceedingly well, helping "H. K." to add 100 runs for the
