Llanelly's match with Neath at Stradey Saturday was favoured with beautiful

Diamelly's match with Neath at Stradey on Saturday was favoured with beautiful weather and a large crowd assembled. It must have been very encouraging to Simpson and Davies (stumper) in particular to see such an unusually large attendance, as the match had been-set apart for their benefit. It was also fitting that they should have played such an important part in the winning of the game for Unanelly. Botween them, if one except E. Goe for the moment, they beat the Neath team. Davies, who, by the manner in which he disposed of J. W. Jones and caught out A. E. Frestly, proved that his abilities as a stumper are by no means spent, also showed that he was capable of weilding the bat to the advantage of his form. More comments on these two pros. will be made anou.

Neath went to the wicket, which was in excellent condition, first. Before Simpson and E. Gee, who were the Llunelly bowlers, the hatsnen seemed to quail. Apart from T. F. Reason, the first eight visitors failed to get into double figures. The fielding on the part of the homesters was particularly good, and special mention should be made of Lohmanu, who made two brilliant catches. Reason succeeded in contributing; 22 runs before being smartly caught out by Kempe off Simpson, W. Broskham, who from a spectacular standpoint, is a miserable batsman, carried out his bat with 11 runs to his credit, and Bestwick, who hit Simpson to the boundary three times, contributed 15 runs before being given marching orders by E. Gee. For 28 runs. Neath were all out soon after the adjournment for huncheon, and Simpson had captured six wickets for 34 runs, while E. Gee lad taken four for 31.

Lianelly simporters were sanguine of success until they saw Percy Rees, who opened the Llanelly innings with Davies, making an indiscreet stroke as the result of which he was caught out by J. Griffiths off. Bestwick when he had only scored two runs. They became even more dejected when Holsinger, who had received a hearty welcome from his Llanelly friends, dommenced playing have even more

Neath went in a second time, but the play was not taken seriously, and they scored 80 runs for one wicket. The hat collection made by Lohmann on behalf of Simpson and Davies realised £4 78, 9d.
