WILTS CHAMPIONSHIP.

The final for the Wilts Knock-out Cup between Chippenham and Savernake was played at Chippenham on Saturday, but the match was unfinished, and will be resumed on a date to be arranged. Owing to the rain, a late start was made, and Savernake did well to score 146 for eight wickets, the venture then being declared closed. A. E. Tittley contributed a sound 54 and Dowdell played well for 29. Lucas was the most successful bowler with four for 25. Thanks mainly to W. Holder, who knocked up 25, the home team had made 47 for four when cricket was no longer possible. Scores:—

BOX v. DEVIZES.

Played at Box on Saturday, when the home team secured an easy win. Devizes, who batted first, were all dismissed for 33, Pike (10) being the only one to reach double figures. Six of their wickets fell to Milson for 19 and four to Vezey for 10. Box replied with 78, thus beating their opponents by 45 runs. Jotcham accounted for four wickets for 20, Trapp five for 20, and Crook one for seven. Scores:—

COUNTY MENTAL HOSPITAL v. MELKSHAM.

Melksham visited Devizes on Saturday afternoon when, on the ground of the County Mental Hospital, they were beaten by the staff of that institution by four wickets and 33 runs. The home team batted first and, at 116 for six wickets, declared, Tittley being still at the wickets with 45 to his credit. Davis took two wickets for 32 and Forster, E. Salter, Ledbury and A. Salter one each for 18, 16, 27 and 11 respectively. Melksham were dismissed for 83, Adams taking six wickets for 39, Russ two for 16 and Day one for 20. There was little or no way in their tail, the last five wickets only adding seven runs. Scores:—

MINOR COUNTIES CHAMPIONSHIP.

WILTS v. DORSET.—Fine weather favoured Wiltshire's Minor Counties Championship fixture with Dorsetshire, which was played on the South Wilts Cricket Ground, Bemerton, on Friday and Saturday. Winning the toss, Dorset batted first, their innings being opened by the Rev. W. W. Jephson and Knight. Both batsmen made light of the bowling of Willis and Newman, and the half-century was reached within three-quarters of an hour. The partnership was broken soon after by Squarey, who clean bowled Knight after he had compiled 51. Busk being dismissed for four, J. N. Carter joined Jephson, and together they succeeded in scoring 116 runs. Jephson's consistently good batting was a feature of the first innings, his 110 being the highest individual score of the match. He was eventually caught by Newman, and two overs later Carter was similarly dismissed by Lovell-Hewitt off Squarey. R. Fookes, who made 46, and M. B. Elderton, who was caught after making 31, both made fine stands for Dorset. Wiltshire commenced their innings on the first day, but play was suspended after Fuller, Butler, and Bankier had been dismissed for 7, 40, and 16 respectively. The wicket was in good condition on Saturday morning, when Wiltshire's innings was continued. Newman and Awdry treated Adams' and Walby's deliveries with extreme caution, with the result that runs came very slowly. Five maiden overs were bowled in the first half-hour. The Dorset fielders were very smart, and likely leg drives seldom got away. Dorset tried nearly all their available bowlers without success during the first hour and a-half, and a leg-bye put Wiltshire 200 up. Busk then took his turn with the ball, and sent down some dangerous low deliveries, but Awdry and Newman managed to put on 100 runs within an hour and forty minutes. After lunch a fine stand was made by Nash and Lovell-Hewitt, and Wiltshire were finally saved from a first innings' defeat by a three by Lovell-Hewitt off Walby. The home eleven were all out for 377. When Dorset started their second innings it seemed improbable that sufficient time remained for Wiltshire to win on both innings, but much to the surprise of both teams Dorset were dismissed for 91 in just under three hours. Jephson, who made such an excellent stand on the previous day, succumbed to Newman for 14, and Busk, who scored 15, had his wickets lowered by the same bowler. Carter and Symes went in after tea and batted steadily, but they could do little with Newman's deliveries. Symes was first dismissed by Newman, whose analysis at this stage was: 13.3 overs, 8 maidens, 10 runs, 4 wickets. Fookes, who joined Carter, was clean bowled by a low delivery from Willis after making two, and Doulton took his place with the score standing at 66. Within a short time both Doulton and Carter were out. The batting then lost much of its sting, and Newman bowled 13 consecutive maidens. Having gained a lead of 63 on the first innings, Wiltshire now wanted 29 to win, and this they scored in about half-an-hour with the loss of one wicket only. Newman's was undoubtedly the best all-round performance of the match, and it was in no small way due to his tricky bowling that Dorset's second innings produced so few runs. Scores:—

WILTS COUNTY CRICKET.

WILTSHIRE v. KENT 2nd XI.

Wiltshire beat Kent 2nd XI. at Swindon by an innings and 107 runs. Incidentally, this is the first victory achieved by the county eleven on the Swindon ground since 1921. E. H. F. Fuller made his first three-figure innings for the county, being bowled by Boslee at 111, while Newman made the high score of 176 before being caught by Boslee from one of Hever's. Newman hit 21 4's. The home side finished their first innings with the total of 368, and very little more play was possible on the first day. On Saturday, however, Newman and Willis bowled to such good effect that Kent were all out for 78 at 12.30. Of course Kent, being 282 runs behind, had to follow on, and again Newman and Willis accounted for all the wickets except one, which fell to Sellick with the first ball bowled. Kent certainly did do better in their second innings, but the county were in a strong position and did not look like getting defeated throughout the match. Several times, however, it looked very much as if the match would be left drawn, which would have given Wiltshire three points on the first innings lead. But after coming in three times on account of the rain Kent were eventually dismissed at 5.30 for 185. In the two innings Newman took 16 wickets for 73 runs, and Willis 9 for 120.

Wiltshire occupy a very good position in the Minor Counties table, having a percentage of 66.00. Had not the rain spoil the Oxford match when Wiltshire were in a very strong position, and were almost certain to have won, the percentage would have been 70.66. Scores:—

CHIPPENHAM v. MELKSHAM.

On Saturday Melksham visited Chippenham, the match being set apart for the benefit of G. Reckless, the groundsman, whose work on the ground during the season has been thoroughly appreciated. Unfortunately the weather was unfavourable, which militated against the attendance. The visitors took first knock and ran up 138 for nine, when they declared. Guerdon played an invaluable innings of 45. Chippenham quickly lost a couple of wickets, but Warrilow and N. J. Awdry batted soundly, and when time came three wickets were down for 68. Scores:—

WILTSHIRE COUNTY CRICKET CLUB.

AVERAGES, 1924.

Wiltshire have had their most successful season since 1909, and occupy the third position in the Minor Counties Championship table, with a percentage of 61.44. They have played nine county matches, and won four (two against Dorset, one against Surrey, and one against Kent), winning three on the first innings. It was very unfortunate that they did not win two of these matches outright. In their second match against Surrey and their first match against Berkshire, they were heavily defeated, the return fixture against Berkshire having to be abandoned owing to the rain.

The following players have made centuries during the season: G. S. Butler, 171 not out against Surrey; Newman, 176 against Kent, and 100 not out against Oxford; and E. H. F. Fuller, 111 against Kent 2nd Eleven.
