A DORSET COLLAPSE.

MINOR COUNTIES MATCH AGAINST MONMOUTH.

Unfavourable conditions prevailed at Poole this morning when Dorset opened their programme in the Minor Counties' cricket championship match with Monmouthshire in Poole Park. A slight driszle was falling when, after an inspection of the rain-sodden pitch, it was decided to make a start.

Maddock.

Winning the toss for Dorset, Elderton elected to bat on what appeared to be a lifeless wicket.

Outram and Knight opened against an Outram and Knight opened against an attack shared by Dolman and Williams. The opening proved sensational, for after Doleman had sent down a maiden over, Williams, bowling into the wind and getting a swerve on the ball, bowled Knight with his first ball. The first wicket thus fell without a run having! been scored.

Brockway filled the vacancy, and the Blandford batsman proceeded to play him-

Further disaster befel Dorset, however, when Williams—who was mixing his de-liveries skilfully—bowled Brockway; two wickets being down for 12.

The first four was obtained by White off Williams, all being run. Outram should have been sont back in Doleman's fifth over, but was dropped in the gulley. But when only six runs had been added to the total he pulled a ball from Williams into his atumps. into his stumps.

Ogilvy and White then became associated or a partnership that produced over 90 runs, and when lunch was taken the Dorset total had reached 108 without further loss.

A COLLAPSE.:

A surprising collapse, befell Dorset on the resumption. When the total had reached 131 Williams got White caught by Cope, and a procession of batamen to the pavilion followed. Chiefly as the result of shots to the off White had assisted Ogilvy to put on 113 runs for the fourth wicket, to put on 113 runs for the fourth wicket, his own total being 49.

Captain Busk, who followed, was caught before he had scored, and Ogilvy left for the addition of a single. Taking full advantage of the drying wicket Williams, with the exception of Tindall, secured all the outstanding wickets for a total of nine

Thus, in three-quarters of an hour's play seven wickets had fallen for .33 runs.

Williams claimed eight victima for 59.

Monmouth lost their first wicket when only three runs were on the board,
Brockway holding a hard return from Hodges.

MONMOUTH ALL OUT 22.

Dorset's Easy Win In Minor Counties Match.

FOOTE, OF POOLE, TAKES SIX FOR TWO.

There was a prospect of a definite finish to the Minor Counties Championship match between Dorset and Monmouthshire, which entered upon its second and last day at Poole Park this morning, for the bowlers had gained such an ascendancy yesterday that 22 wickets had fallen for a little over 10 runs apiece. The position was that Dorset, who had gained a lead of 54 on the first innings, had scored 10 runs in their second attempt and lost two wickets in the process. in the process.

Three wickets fell quickly this morning, and with half the side out only 34 runs were on the board.

Later batsmen did a little better, but the innings ended for a total of 86.

141 TO WIN. Monmouthshire were set to get 141 to win a big task in a fourth innings on a wicket that was anything but perfect, but they had over five hours to get the runs.

The Welshmen started disastrously, howresawns was taken at the wicket on the leg side, and only five had been scored in a quarter of an hour when lunch was taken.

AMAZING COLLAPSE.

Monmouth collapsed in remarkable fashion after lunch, and the side was dismissed for the incredibly small total of 22 leaving Dorset the victors by 118 runs.

The bowling of Foote, the Poole Park player, was the chief cause of the trouble, for he took six wickets for one run spiece. All these men were dismissed in his last five overs, when his figures were:

o. m. 5 3 r.

The whole innings occupied only 75 minutes, and Hodges, the opening batsman, stayed an hour for seven runs. Nobody ever looked like staying the progress of the Doract bowlers, whose efforts were backed up by splendid folding were, backed up by splendid fielding. Elderton was very vigilant behind the stumps, having a hand in the dismissal of three men, while Busk made a splendid catch at silly mid-off to get rid of Wilkins.

The pitch was a bowlers' paradise, for in the two days' play 40 wickets had fallon for a little over eight runs apiece. Scores :-

COUNTY CRICKET AT WEYMOUTH.

DORSET RECOVER AFTER MODERATE START.

BROCKWAY'S FINE KNOCK.

The wicket played easily at the Weymouth College Ground today, when Dorset and Cornwall opened a two-days' match in the Minor Counties' Championship. M. B. Elderton, the Dorset captain, had no hesitation in electing to bat first on winning the toss.

Despite the fine weather there was only a small attendance when J. R. Outram and Brockway opened the innings against the slow bowling of Rogers, W., and the medium fast deliveries of J. E. Mill. The first two overs yielded only 1 run. Outram opening his score with a rather lucky snick off Rogers. Outram scemed ill at ease at first but eventually drove Rogers to square leg for two.

Brockway scored the first four with a drive to the on boundary off Rogers while Outram executed a perfect cut off Mill, whose first four overs yielded only three runs.

With the score at 14 Outram stepped out to Rogers and was promptly stumped by Fox.

BOWER'S BRIEF INNINGS.

M. B. S. Bower signalled his arrival at the wicket with a boundary and a three off Rogers. Brockway had his first "life" when he offered a difficult catch near the on boundary off a loose one from Rogers. Bower was applauded for a big hit over the head of the bowler, but shortly afterwards, in attempting a drive off Mill, was easily caught at point by Beecher Williams. The score was then 29.

With White joining Brockway the score mounted slowly and at the end of an hour's play Dorset had com-piled 43 runs for the loss of two wickets, Brockway being responsible for 17.

A FINE INNINGS.

At 47 the first bowling change was made, Beecher Williams coming on made, Beecher Williams coming on for Mill. Brockway showed his appreciation by making two superb cuts to the boundary in his first over. At 62 Stoneman relieved Rogers, and the double bowling change was successful, White being beaten by a ball from Beecher Williams. The third wicket fell at 75, and the partnership had yielded 46 in as many minutes.

Brockway reached lifts 50 with a drive to leg off Stoneman. He had occupied the crease for 85 minutes.

DORSET LEADING AT WEYMOUTH.

CORNWALL'S REPLY TO HOME TOTAL.

96 IN ARREARS.

Dorset and Cornwall re-When Dorset and Cornwall resumed their Minor Counties Championship match at the Weymouth College ground today, the visiting county had nine wickets still standing, and were 213 runs behind Dorset's first innings total of 328.

Dorset met with several early successes today. The wicket had not represent from last night's storm and resses today. The wicket had not re-revered from last night's sterm, and in the first over sent down Jowett had Rogers caught and bowled with the fourth ball. One run had then been added. Tresawna and Stone-man were very cautious, and at 131 Brockway came on for Harrison. After Stoneman had squared him to leg for two, he was smartly taken at the wicket by Elderton.

Six runs later Tresawna was run

With the addition of five runs two more disasters for Cornwall followed. The first was due to a brilliant piece of fielding by Harrison. In the same over Jowett sent back Bond.

Fox and Hoskin added 21 rapidly, but then Jowett took a hard and high return from Fox with one hand for a sple idid catch.

Both He kin and Rogers (W.) made some brill ant drives, Hoskin hitting Jowett for six and Rogers quickly following suit. They raised the score by 30 in ten minutes, and then Rogers having skied a ball from Harrison repeated his mistake with the next and was caught by Johnson.

SAVED THE FOLLOW ON.

SAVED THE FOLLOW ON.

Hoskin and Mill raised the score to 209 for the ninth wicket and then Brockway, brought on again for Harrison, got Hoskin's wicket with an in-swinger. Williams and Mill then required 20 to save the follow on. A boundary by Williams and a six and another four by Mill brought them within four of their objective and this was achieved by Williams with a big hit off Harrison. After another hit by Mill the innings closed, Williams being taken by Tindall from a "skier."

With a lead of 96 on the first innings Dorset had ten minutes batting before lunch losing Outram for the addition of 10 runs.

CAPTAIN'S SIXES.

CAPTAIN'S SIXES.

After lunch Brockway and Elderton batted confidently, Elderton playing the more forceful game. After his partner had sent up the 50 he drove Mill for a beautiful six. Later Cory just failed to take a catch from him when standing on the boundary and the ball dropped over for another six. He reached 50 out of 81 in 45 minutes and smote Stoneham for two more sixes immediately afterwards. He was out in making another lotty hit in the same over and Brockway was bowled with the first ball of the next.

DORSET'S GOOD WIN.

Sensational second innings collapse by the visitors, in which the team was dimissed for only 22 runs, gave Dorset a victory by 118 runs over Moumouthshire on Saturday at Poole Park. This was largely at ributable to remarkable bowling by W. H. Foot who took six wickets for six runs, and to two very line catches by M. B. Elderton.

When the game opened on Friday the pitch appeared somewhat lifeless. Dorset won the toss, and Elderton put his side in to bat. The first wicket—Knight's—was lost without a run being put up, and when the score reached 12 G. Williams took Brookway's wicket. Knight was bowled by G. Williams before scoring. A stand by G. White (49) and G. D. Ogilyy (53) suved Dorset. Prospects looked well for Dorset when the Monmouth batsmen trickled out in their first innings for 87.

A similar fate befel Dorset in their second innings on Saturday, and a close finish was anticipated, Dorset having reached only 66. Then came Monmouth's surprising collapse, and within a couple of hours after the lugch interval the whole team was back in the pavilion: Scores:—

ALHALLOWS SCHOOL, v. OLD Honttonians.

This, the opening malch of the Old Honitonian week, was played on the School ground on Monday, and was von by the School by 38 runs. The School showed a great improvement on their Saturday form. They gave a good batting display, and were very smart in the field. St. G. F. Walker and D. G. Long opened the batting for the School, and quickly became set, their partnership producing 74. That there was lusty hitting may be inferred that Long, in his 46, only had three singles, but eight fours, while Walker hit four 4 s and seven 2's. Pickard also batted well for his 25.

Old Honitonians made a very shaky start, losing one wicket for four runs. Dow and Brownrigg, however, carried the score to 32 for two wickets. For Allhallows, Long took five for 29, and Pickard three for 23, while Wills, for the Old Boys, took six for 37. Scores:—

In continuation of the Old Honitonians' week the two days' match with the Somerset Stragglers commenced on Wednesday. Batting first. Old Honitonians were dismissed for 99 (G. S. Napier 32). The Old Honitonians found the bowling of Dr. Gibson, who took four for 25, difficult to cope with. A feature was the fact that there were no extras, this being due to the good wicket keeping of Harvey, who has played for Somerset county and in the Gentlemen's v. Players' match.

GOOD YEQVIL WIN OVER DORCHESTER

WARD IN FORM.

WARD IN FORM.
Yeovil were poorly represented for their home match on Saturday with Dorchester, only four of the regular first team making an appearance. The side was therefore not at all indicative of the playing strength of the Club. Dorchester, on the other hand, placed their strongest batting side on the field, with the exception of one player, G. White, junior, who was representing his County v. Monmouth at Poole.

who was representing his County v. Monmouth at Poole.

Yoovil started the batting on a wicket that could not be called perfect, as the ball bumped awkwardly at times at both ends. Risdon and Pullan commenced operations to the bowling of Hitchman (medium) and Norris (slow). When the score has reached 19 Pullan stepped forward to play a ball and was bowled after making 11. Denmead did not trouble the scorers, being taken low down, caught and balled Norris, at 23. Ward now joined Risdon, and correct stylish cricket by Yeovil's captain and some good hitting from Ward carried the score to 80 before Risdon was bowled by. Hitchman after various Ward carried the score to 89 before Risdon was bowled by Hitchman after various bowling changes. There were two four's in his 34, but it was an exceedingly good innings. Ward still vent on his way, and did his best to get runs quickly, as none of the rest could stay with him. Loney left at the same total, 89, Hudson at 102, Rowland at 123, and Wakeley at 127. Then came the closure of Ward's top score this year at 131, if which ha had contributed 69 by sound hitting without giving a chance. The large number of twelve four's, one three, and three two's shows, how well he laid on the wood. Collard left at 131, and then Forte, the last man in, quickly hit up eight before Biggin was bowled at 140, which had taken a few minutes over the two hours to put together.

DORCHESTER TROUBLED.

At 5.15 the visitors commenced their task with Groombridge and Mayo. They soon ran into trouble, for with the score at three the former played on to Ward. With the total eleve, Mayo was smartly taken behind the wicket by Forte off Rowlands. The score reached 24, when Clapp left in Collard's first over, and the last bell of the same over saw Hodder bowled and only 1 run added. No addition had been made to the score when Wyatt left, bowled off his pads by Ward. Twentysix saw Stanl'ord sent back again by Ward, who appeared irresistible at this point.

The next pair added six runs between them before Collard got past Hitchman's bat, and before Collard got past Hitchman's bat, and the score looked pretty bad for Dorchester when G. H. White came in. He hit two 4's and a single off Collard, to be bowled by the first hall of Ward's next over by a real good 'un. Norris and K. White added 13 runs, and brought the total to 54, when again Ward was amongst the wickels, to send back the former for 8. The last man, Pethen, had no chance to score, as he was quickly stumped by Forte again off the professional at 56, and the innings closed at 6.40 with Yeovil the winners by 84 runs.

The Yeovil fielding was an improvement on the provious Saturday, but they were not sufficiently tested as to what they could do as the total was so small and eight of the wickets falling being clean bowled.

Ward, who had bowled well, had the satisfaction of taking 6 for 17 in 13 overs, of which six were maidens. Scores:—

DORSET'S GREAT VICTORY.

CORNWALL FAIL AGAINST MASTERLY BOWLING.

ROUSING FINISH.

A brilliant spell of bowling by Busk and superb fielding in the early part of the Cornwall second innings, enabled Dorset to follow up their victory over Monmoush with another fine win against Cornwall at Weymouth College Ground yesterday.

Dorset, having gained a lead of 96 on the first innings, were able to declare in their second knock with seven wickets down at a total of 224, leaving Cornwall 24 hours in which to make 321 runs to win.

Cornwall started their almost hopeless task badly. Busk in his first over, making the ball turn off the pitch at a fast pace, got Cory taken in the slips, Bower making a brilliant one-handed catch. In Harrison's second over Rogers (G.) put the ball into Outram's hands, and with the score at 12 Bower made another magnificent catch off Busk to dismiss Stoneman.

ENTERPRISING BATTING.

ENTERPRISING BATTING.

Busk's fourth over saw Barnes throw one up, but the bowler failed to get to it. In the same over Tresawna made a similar stroke and this time Busk got right underneath. After half an hour four wickets had fallen for 17 runs. Cornwall, however, did not attempt to sit on the splice, the batsmen running sharply between the wickets. Mill was responsible for a hige drive over the bowler's head for six. White just failed to take a chance offered by Mill at midon, but one run later the batsman was smartly stumped by Elderton. With a single added, Barnes drove towards White and this time the Dorchester player made no mistake.

Bond had a life, Elderton fumbling the ball when given a chance of catching or stumping off Harrison, but the rout of Cornwall continued, for in Busk's next over he completely deceived Fox and Bond with balls which came in from leg. Eight wickets were down for 47 runs. At this stage of the innings Busk had taken five wickets for 15 runs.

NINTH WICKET STAND.

NINTH WICKET STAND.

The latter part of the innings was marked by a bright stand between Hoskin and Rogers (W.) They made light of an attack which previously had seemed unplayable and with numerous boundary strokes sent the 100 up and caused the first bowling change. Brockway came on for Harrison and Jowett replaced Busk. Rogers hit 11 off Jowett's first three balls and neither Brockway nor Jowett could get rid of the plucky batsmen. It was not until the partnership had reslised 104 that Rogers played over a straight ball from Johnson. Ten runs later Williams gave Outram a catch off the same howler and the side were all out at 161 with only half an hour left for play. Dorset won by 159 runs.

DORSET v. MONMOUTHSHIRE.

Friday. Most unfavourable conditions provailed, a slight drizzle falling, and atter an inspection of the rain-sodden pitch had been made, it was decided to make a start. The teams were as follows:—

Dorset—M. B. Elderton, A. M. Harrison, C. J. P. C. Jowett, W. H. Poot, J. L. Outram, G. D. Ogilvy, Gorlon White. R. G. Tridall, Captain R. D. Busk, Knight, and Brockway.

Monmouth—T. B. Williams (captain), E. C. Doleman, Captain Price, Lieut. Coleman, J. H. A. Tresawna, Wilcox, A. V. Hodges, A. Watkins, W. Cope, B. Williams, and C. Maddock.

Dorset won the toss, and Elderton elected to bat on what, to all appearances, seemed to be a lifeless wicket. Outram and Knight were the first to bat against an attack by Dolman and Williams. Williams made a sensation by bowling Knight out with his first ball. Brockway took his place. Further disaster, however, befel Dorset, when Williams bowled Brockway, the score at this stage being two wickets down for only 12 runs. White obtained the first four. Outram was unfortunate in pulling a ball from Williams into his stumps, after only six runs had been added to the total. Ogilvy sind White then made a partnership which produced over 90 runs, Dorset making the score of 108 up till lunch-time without further loss. On the resumption Dorset made a surprising collapse. With the total at 131 Williams got White caught by Cope, and then a procession of batsmen to the pavilion followed. Seven wickets fell for 33 runs in three-quarters of an hour.

Monmouth then batted, and when only three runs had been made had lost their first wicket. The innings closed with the score of 87.

There was a prospect of a definite finish to the match on Saturday morning, the position being that Dorset had gained a lead of 54 on the first innings, and has soored ten runs in their second attempt with the loss of twe wickets. Later batsmen did a little better, but Dorset's socond innings closed with the score of 86.

Monmounouthshire were set to get 141 to win, a big task on a wicket that was far from perfect, but

DORSET V. CORNWALL AT WEYMOUTH

ATTRACTIVE DATTING

(BY OUR OWN REPORTER.,

Fresh from their victory over Monmouth Fresh from their victory over Monmouth at Poole on Saturday, Dorset engaged Cornwall on Monday and Tuesday in the same composition, the match being played on the Weymouth College ground. It is the only county match allotted to Weymouth this summer, and the local arrangements for it were in the capable hands of Mr. Bert Brewin, a leading member of the Weymouth C.C. and the club's representative on the county committee. The only matter for it were in the capable hands of Mr. Bert Brewin, a leading member of the Weymouth C.C. and the club's representative on the county committee. The only matter of regret to cricket supporters in Weymouth was that the county selection committee did not include a Weymouth man in the team, but Dorchester was represented by G. White, the bearer of a familiar name in club and county cricket. The county had a good batting side out, but there is still room in it for a really class bowler, and the brunt of the attack falls, as it has now done for some years, on A. M. Harrison, late of Bridport, and C. J. P. C. Jowett, of Sherborne.

There were two changes in the team originally chosen, E. M. Bower and J. J. Johnson coming into the team in the places of R. W. P. Pawlo and Knight respectively. It was stated on the ground that Foot, an East Dorset player, who skittled out half the Monmouth team on Saturday with a wonderful bowling analysis, had been asked to go to Weymouth, but had to fulfi snother engagement. There was only a fair crowd behind the ropes when the game started on Monday at 11.30, but the afternoon Irought a good many more, and these late-comers "rrived in time to see some of the brighter-batting of the day, when Tindall and Morres, flogging rather tired bowling unmerefully, put on 178 runs for the sixth wicket. They made a timely and most attractive stand.

Weymouth College ground is one of the easy-scoring grounds in the county, and the weeket, drying rapidly after week-ond rains, was good enough for 500 runs in six hours' batting. Dorset's captain, M. B. Elderton, winning the toss, unhesitatingly weynouth College ground is not of the easy-sering grounds in the county, and the wicket, drying rapidly after wook-ond rains, was good enough for 500 runs in six hours' batting. Dorset's captain, M. B. Elderton, winning the toss, unhesitatingly gut his side in, Brockway and Outram facing Rogers (W.) and J. E. Mill. The wicket was apparently helping the bowlers a little, and the rate of scoring in the first hour was slow and a little too flattering to the bowling. Brockway batted very steadily, playing a perfectly straight bat to the medium fast deliveries of Mill, but Hogers, with his slows, frequently had him guessing. The Cornishman put up a tempting one to Outram, who slipped over the crease, missed, and was very smartly stumped. Bower hit up a quick dozen and was well caught out "in the country" off Mill, who was bowling well and keeping the runs down. G. White opened confidently, and was batting well until he had reached an unlucky 13, and then fell a victim to a fast yorker. Brockway had taken the measure of the bowling and appeared to be very comfortable. He cut several fine boundaries and despatched a short one or two in the same direction. He sent the 100 up after an hour and thirty-five minutes' play. Captain Busk played himself in carefully, but just before lunch Brockway was clean bowled by Mill after a fine iminings of 61, in which he hit eight fours. His innings was invaluable and a good foundation for Dorset's subsequent score. Tindall joined Busk; but early in the afternoon the latter fell a victim to one of Rogers' slows, and five wickets were down for 126. Then came the Morres — Tindall partnership and an hour's glorious batting. The two ran a merry race, boundary after boundary being hit and one or two drives that cleared the ropes. The Cornish captain rang the changes on his fast bowlers, but everything came alike to the batemen, and Rogers' slows were treated with scant respect. The break-up of this fruitful and fascinating partnership was dramatic. Cory was put on to bowl at the Radipole e

Cornwall began their innings after the tea interval, when clouds were rolling up from the west. Treaswan, the skipper and one of the veterans of the team, took Cory with him to the wicket. Harrison started from the Radipole end with that nice easy action and irreproachable length that always sectire him a place in the county team. Brockway was at the other end. The batsmen took no risks, and played themselves in carefully and methodically. Treaswan was content to pick out a single here and there, but his partner occasionally opened his shoulders. Johnston went on for Brockway, and when Cory was 31 and made a huge swipe to leg, shattered his wickets with an extraordinary ball. Treaswan was joined by Rogers (G.), who batted briskly and was especially severe on short-pitched balls from Johnstone. Jowett went on for Harrison, who was transferred to the other end. Two showers of rain drove the players to the pavilion and brought the sawdust out. The bowling was good, but not good enough to get behind either of the Cornishmen's guard, and they were together at 6.15, when another heavy downpour stopped play for the day. Cornwall were then 115 for one wicket—a splendid reply to Dorset's total.

Cornwall resumed their innings on Tuesday morning, Tresawan and Rogers (G.) being Cornwall resumed their innings on Tuesday Cornwall resumed their innings on Tuesday morning, Tresawna and Rogers (G.) being the overnight not outs. Their partnership was soon ended. Rogers returned one into the hands of Jowett, and his captain was run out. Rogers hit well at times, and his score included a six and eight fours. Four nore wickets fell rapidly, but Cornwall's "tail" came to the rescue and the last four men put on useful scores, so that Cornwall's total went up to 232, C. Mills being unbeaten after a stubborn stand.

Dorset on Tuesday knocked up the useful score of 224, to which Elderton contributed 62, and five other batsmen got into double

With the prospect of a definite decision being arrived at it was decided to draw stumps at 7 p.m. instead of 6 p.m. as at first arranged. Elderton declared the Dorset second innings closed at 224 for seven wickets. first arranged. Elderton declared the Dorset second innings closed at 224 for seven wickets Cornwall commenced their second innings about 4.30 p.m. Busk and Harrison opened the bowling to Tresawnu and Cory, and both met with early success. Cornwall's early batamen fauled against some accurate howling, and at one time it seemed that the match would be concluded shortly after six so rapid were wickets falling. Hoskin and Rogers W. then became associated and a different complexion came over the game. These two figured in a bright partnership which yielded over 90 runs to the score. Jowett and Brockway were now bowling but neither met with any success. Johnson then relieved Jowett and in his third over he bowled Rogers with a yorker after that player had made 41. The fast bowler ended the innings by getting Beecher Williams caught by Outram without any addition to the acore. Hoskins carried his bat in fine style for 58 and was undefeated at the close. The innings closed about 9.40 p.m.with the total at 161.Dorset winning an excellent match by 159 runs. Dorset have now won both their Minor Counties matches.

WEYMOUTH V. PORTSMOUTH AMATEURS.

AMATEURS.

There was little cricket of a thrilling nature in the game between Weymouth and Portsmouth Amateurs at Lodmoor on Monday. Weymouth batted first, losing the first three wickets for 31 runs. Powell and Savage improved the position, although scoring was slow. The score of 118 was reached before this partnership was broken. Helmes, the Weymouth skipper, had the misfortune to be struck in the head by a kicking delivery from Byng, and had to leave the field after having scored six. Thomas and Luckham made a brilliant stand, taking the score from 125 to 207 before Luckham was bowled. Three runs later the innings was declared.

The visitors' opening batsmen were very restrained, Grover being exceptionally quiet. Corfield lost his wicket at 39, while Grover had scored only 12. Grover and Parnell, however, took the score to 63. At this stage Thomas dismissed four batsmen. The play was improved by Stanbridge and Titoombe towards the end with some good hitting. Rain interfered with the play after the tea interval. The game resulted in a draw. Scores:—

BIG DORSET SCORE.

CORNWALL BEATER AT WEYMOUTH.

Dorse, won their match with Cornwall on Weymouth College Ground on Tuesday by 159

Weymouth College Ground on Tuesday by 159 runs.

Set to get over 200 runs in not over two hours. Cornwall's recognised butsmen collapsed. Eight wickets fell for 47, but a ninthwicket stand by Rogers (W.) and Hoskin produced 104 runs. Hoskin was the more aggressive, and both butsmen profited by misakes in the field, but the last wicket fell had an hour before time. Both Rogers and Hoskin hit a six and five 4's.

Dorset took first immes on Monday, and their all-out score, 328, was one of the best they have made. There was a slight shower in the morning, but when Dorset commenced their innings conditions favoured the batsmen.

A Grain Partnership.

Tinday and Morres combined in a partnership which produced 178 runs in 55 minutes. Both left in the same over. Tindall was cought on the boundary by Stonehuta. His 89 included one six and 15 fours. Morres was out with his score at 30. He hat four sixes and eight fours. After the departure of Tindall and Morres wickets fell cheaply.

There were showers during the late after moon, and Cornwall were able to but for only 81 minutes. They made good use of the time, however, and when rain stopped play for the day had scored 115 for one wicket. A feature was the butting of Rogers. In scoring 48 not out, he bit one six and eight. Vi-

Cornwall were 213 runs behind with nine wickets to fall when play was resumed on Tuesday. The wicket favoured the bowlers, a hot sun drying the pit 1 rapidly, and there were several early disasters for Cornwall. Good bowling was supported by capital fielding, two fine returns securing wickets.

Ing, two fine returns securing wickets.

Brown Chicket.

Hoskin and Rogers were responsible for the brighest cricket during the morning. Both made some brilliant drives, scoring 30 in ten minutes. But Rogers, having skied a ball from Harrison, repeated his mistake, and was caught. Hoskin and Mil. raised the acore to 209 for the nin'h wicket, when Brockway bowled Hoskin with an in-swinger.

Williams and Mill required 20 to save the follow-on. A boundary by Williams and a six and another four by Mill brought them within four of their objective, which was achieved by Williams with a big hit off Harrison.

With a lead of 96, Dorset forced the pace, and 6's were plentiful on the easy sooring ground. Elderton hit dur 6's and five 4's, scoring 50 in 45 minutes.

DORSET'S FIRST DEFEAT. WILTSHIRE BOWLERS ON TOP.

DORSET'S FRIST DEFEAT.

WILTSHIRE BOWLERS ON TOP.

The restoration of the Dorset v. Wills match to the Salisbury week was popular, but the two years' break affected the attendance from the Dorset side, and storm clouds on Wednesday morning did not help. Fortunately, there was no rain. The wicket was very tricky, and batsmen were never comfortable. Harrison, the Dorset bowler, was in great form. He took eight of Wiltshire's wickets for 38 runs, and the home side were dismissed for 115.

Dorset going out to bat soon after the lunch interval made a disastrous start, losing two wickets before a run was scored. Bean was caught when two runs were up, and four wickets for four made melancholy reading. Captain Busk tackled the bowling to the end of the innings, which closed in dramatic fashion for 55 runs. Elderton, Spear, and Harrison being caught off three successive balls in one over by W. Smith, who was heartily applanded for the "hat trick," J. Smith took four wickets for 24, W. Smith three wickets for four, and C. E. Awdry three for 24.

Batting again, Wiltshire compiled 52 for the loss of five wickets before the close of play, Burler contributing 25. The gume was left in an interesting position for the last day's play. Scores:—

DORSET v. WILTS.

VISITORS' BIG SCORE AT SHERBORNE.

HOME COUNTY'S COLLAPSE,

HOME COUNTY'S COLLAPSE.

On the opening day of the Dorset v. Wills match at Sherborne on Friday the Wilts hatsmen, on a favourable wicket, were decidely on top of the bowling, and they finished their innings with a secre of 452.

Although making such a useful total there was nothing outstanding in the Wilts innings. Buffer's 142 taking three hours and to minutes to compile. He was several times missed from catches, but the Dorset fielding was very keen throughout. Brockway missed a catch from Butler sixteen runs previously to catching him from a similar stroke in the same place, futtle hit 14 fours. There was a particularly trudi interlude when Smith (1) came out to join C. E. Awdry. He promptly slogged two boundaries and a similar hit saw his downfall to a catch. Morzan brought off a line catch in deep field to dismiss R. N. Awdry. Tindall, in the slips, dismissed the last two Wits wickets with very near carches from almost exactly similar balls by Harrison. Although the extras totalled 19 only one lase was secred, and this was tostimony of the excellent wicket-keeping by the Dorset skipner. M. Elderton.

D. Evans, who took four for 83, is an old boy of Sherborn, School, and this match is his debut in county cricket. G. C. Tovey an old Shastonian, also proved his value to the side.

Dorset did not make a good start on Friday, and in 50 minutes play Outram was dismissed with only 17 runs scored. On Saturday morning Dorset wickets fell rapidly; there was nothing like a stand and in rather less than two hours' play the Dorset side was dismissed for the morrer total of 81. Brockway was the first to follow Outram without storing and the remainder followed in fairly quick storesion. G. C. Tovey and Crutam Busk seemed to be fairly set, when an unfortunate misunderstanding caused Captain Busk to be run out. The Wilts felding was excellent, and this they uncerted by the did effectively. Smith 430 notes for 12 Busk was then lowed for stoopher runs, and ture the save in minute stored by was nissed on two screens are prov

The return match between Yeovil and Frome were fairly well represented, but the visitors had the weakest team that has represented the Club for years. They lost by six wickets. Moore took four wickets for one run.

Frome won the toss and put Yeovil in on a drying wicket. The visitors were all out in 80 minutes for 75 runs. Ward hit hard for 55, whilst R. Southeombe played exceptionally line cricket to make 24 before being stunned. The veteran T. Parkin, made 11, Thus these three experienced players made 70 out of 74 from the bat, and one extra made up the total. Frome, who had plenty of time to get the runs, made 123 for 4 before time was called. D. Scott made 63 not out, M. Moore 26, and F. Barrett 23. Ward sent down 17 overs for 21 runs and two wickets, but had no one to support him at the other end.

A SEVEN WICKETS VICTORY.

WEAK YEOVIL SIDE OUTPLAYED BY SOUTH PETHERTON.

South Petherton visited the West Hendford ground on Saturday and inflicted a big defeat on a weak Yeovil team. The visitors fully deserved their win, the first they have obtained against Yeovil in five or six years.

The wicket was good, but easy, and the outfield looked well. R. Southcombe, who captained Yeovil for the first time, won the toss, and sent Pullan and Chambers to the wicket. The former was soon sent back for two by Fish (H.). Ward came in to see Chambers bowled at six by Fish (R. A.) for two. Southcombe, the next man, soon got going in his usual free style, but lost Ward at thirteen. Delafield hit a six off the first ball he received, and when he left the score had reached 5t, of which his contribution was 20, made up of one six, three four's and two singles.

PETHERTON'S REPLY.

The visitors had ample time to get the runs and to spare. They lost their first wicket at thirteen, Fish (N.) being easily eaught at point off Ward. Fairs stayed till the score hoard showed 37, when he left after making two. "Mr. Extras" was having a say in the score. H. Fish left at 51 howled Ward. R. A. and R. G. Fish were now together, and they followed the old adage of "keep your wicket up and runs will follow." The game was very slow hereabouts, and some of the spectators voiced their opinion, but still they were playing the right, game to win.

Slowly, but surely, the tens went up on the board, until at 6.15-70 was signalled. One run later R. A. get a good one away to leg for two, and the match was won. There was nothing in the game now and after various howling changes were made Collard tempted R. A. out of his ground to be smartly stumped by Forte at 124, with his score 2d.

The very next over saw Forte catch R. G. Fish on the log side off Rowlands with the total still 124. The outgoing batsmen had made 48, consisting of one six, six four's, and six two's, and only six singles. D.mon and Irish succeeded in playing out time at 7 p.n. with the total 140 for five. South Petherton thus won by seven wickets.

THE RETURN MATCH.

The Return Match.

The return match between Dorset and Wiltshire, in the Minor Countile. Championship, was played at Sherborne on Friday and Saturday. Wilts wont in first, and, by some very consistent batting, rattled up the big total of 400. A feature of the innings was the fine play of G. S. Butler, who made 142. True, the batsman had a "life" or two; but generally speaking it was a splendid effort in the face of keen fielding. Dorset ware left with half-an-hour's batting, and in that time lost a wicket for 17 runs. Dorset's most successful bowlers were G. Evans (four for 88), A. M. Harrison (three for 104), Brockway (two for 47), and C. A. Spear (one for 114).

Dorset fared very badly when they resumed on Saturday morning, and in less than a couple of hours the whole side had been dismissed for the small total of 81. J. Smith, as at Salisbury, bowled excellently, and got six wickets for 36 runs. In the follow on, 319 runs in arrears, Dorset did over so much better. Naturally, the most the home team could hope for was a draw—and even this six wickets for 30 funs. In the tollow on, 319 runs in arrears, Dorset did over so much better. Naturally, the most the home team could hope for was a draw—and even this looked very unlikely when G. H. White was clean bowled by C. Awdry before a run had been scored. Howaver, the Dorset men made a wonderful recovery. J. I. Outram (37), Brockway (32), Captain R. D. Busk (30), and A. E. Morgan (13) each in turn played splendidly; but the stand which very materially enabled the home eleven to make a draw was that by G. C. Tovey and R. G. Tindall, who defied all attempts to shift them, and when stumps were drawn the total stood at 288 for five wickets. Tovey was brilliant in collecting his 85, even if he was lucky once or twice; while Tindall, though perhaps not quite so forceful, did splendidly in compiling 68, The wickets wore raken by C. Awdry (two for 51), W. Smith (one for 27), G. S. Butler (one for 42), and Fitzgerald (one for 52). Scores:—

WILTSHIRE V. DORSET.

WILTSHIRE V. DORSET.

Wiltshire batted first in this Minor Counties match at Salisbury on Wednesday. They soon discovered it was necessary to be watchful of Harrison's bowling, and Dorset were allowing no chances in their fielding. Harrison, however, had taken four wiekets for 19 runs up to the lunchéon interval, and afterwards continued in great form, altogether 'capturing eight wickets for 38 runs.' Wiltshire's first innings ended with the score of 115.

Dorset opened their innings in disastrous style, four runs only having been made when as many wickets had fallen. Busk and Elderton made a stand for the eighth wicket, and the score of 55 was reached. At this point W. Smith disposed of Elderton, and also dismissed the next two batsmen with successive deliveries, performing the "hat trick."

Wilts opened their second innings in a more promising manner, but they still realised that it was necessary to treat the bowling with care. Harrison was again bowling well for Dorset, and rups came slowly.

The partnership between E. M. Nash and R. W. Awdry soon came to a close on Thursday, R. W. Awdry being caught behind the wicket off Harrison after eight runs had been added. Nash was joined by Ling, who together improved the position by 25 runs. Ling batted well, making a useful score of 41, and J. Smith added 22. The innings closed for 142. Faced with the task of making 208 to win, Dorset again started badly, and never really recovered. R. G. Tindall and Capt. R. D. Busk improved natters with a stand for the fifth wicket, which realised 60. Tindall getting 32 and Busk 25; but the remaining battemen, with the exception of M. B. Elderton (11), were soon disposed of, and the total only reached 129. Wilts thus won by 73 runs—and Dorset met their first defeat of the season in this competition. J. Smith took nine wickets for 58, hie record for the match being 13 for 82. A. M. Harrison also bowled brilliantly for Dorset, claiming 14 wickets for 86 runs. Secres:—

DORSET AND DEVON DRAW AT BLANDFORD.

BLANDFORD.

The two-days match between Dorset and Devon at Blandford on Monday and Tuesday, in the Minor Counties Championship, ended in a draw. Dorset were given a good day's "leather hunting" on Monday, for Devon batted first, and rattled up the good total of 309. Despite this fact the fielding of the home county men was very good, with M. B. Elderton exceptionally smart behind the wickets. Dorset had about 20 minutes' betting on Monday evening without loss. When the innings was continued on Tuesday the Dorset men played very consistently, C. J. P. C. Jowett (35 not out) and J. I. Outram (34) being chief scorers in a total of 205. Unfortunately, this did not save the follow-on, and in their second innings the home team again did well. Brockway being not out with 46 and G. L. Ogilvy not out 43, so that when stumps were drawm their total stood at 114 for one wicket. Scores:—

DORSET REGIMENTAL CRICKET WEEK

DORSET RANGERS WELL BEATEN

Brilliant weather prevailed on Monday and Tuesday for the Regiment's final match against the Dorset Rangers, which ended in a splendid win for the former by ten wickets. On Monday a large attendance saw some very bright cricket, especially in the later stages. The Rangers batted first, and, after losing G. H. White with eight runs registered, there was a good recovery with Colonel A. P. Douglas and Gordon White taking the score to 63 before the second wheet fell, White batting delightfully for 38 and Douglas getting 21 in his usual rood style. This was followed with a beautifully played 62 by P. C. F. Williams and a well-collected 27 by D. P. Williams; the total eventually reaching 191. E. E. Down bowled so effectively that he took five wickets for 50, with G. H. Vasay getting three for 29 and P. W. Vasey two for 56. When the Dorsets went to the wickets some sparkling batting was seen. So well did P. W. Vasey and H. C. Partridge (the opening pair) play that the score was taken to 57 before they were separated, Vasey leaving with 34 to his credit. Partridge continued to play brilliantly, hitting ridge continued to play brilliantly, hitting hard all round the wicket to score 63 in little over half an hour. Captain Goff shone in another good innings of 54; but the outstanding performance of the innings was that of J. Gifford, whose 82 was a masterly effort, and consisted of sen 4's. The total eventually reached 3-68, piving the Regiment a lead of 158. W. Harrison was the most successful bowler with five for 82, while G. White had three for 37, R. J. Luffman one for 46 and J. Johnstone one for 112.

A feature of the Rugers' second innings was the magnificent display of Colonel Douglas in making 87, which included eight 4's. The Colonel treated the spectators to some beautiful shots, and his defence was superb. He was well supported by C. A. G. Luckham, who got a nice 31; but few others fared so well, the side being out for 175. Bowling for the Dorsets, Captain Goff proved irresistible. He did not go on until half-way through the innings, but in thirteen overs he claimed six victims for 36 runs, bowling with an "under-hand" that tempted the batsmen to "have a go" with fatal result, for five of his six victims were caught. G. H. Vassey had two for 27, Down one for 25, and P. W. Vassey one for 46.

Needing only 18 to win in their second innings, the Regiment obtained these without loss, and when stumps were drawn they had made 30 for no wicket, F. J. Cummings making 19. Scores:—

Going in first, the home side made 162 for five wickets and declared. This left the Dorchester men with an hour and a-half's betting, and they immediately got to work to hit off the necessary runs. That they succeeded was a distinct credit to them; but it was a very near thing, the winning stroke being made in the last over. A. Mayo batted brilliantly for 86, scoring well all round the wicket; he got twelve 4's. Others to do well were A. Clapp (46 not out) and W. Orledge (20). Scores .—

Horton United v. Wimborne 2nd XI.—
In a remarkably low scoring game, in which each side batted twice, Wimborne 2nd XI. beat Horton United on Saturday by five wickets. Horton's first innings only realised 13 runs! This was due to the splendid bowling of G. Polden and K. Clarke, the former claiming seven wickets for three runs and the latter three for eight. Wimborne also found runs hard to come, but they were able to collect 37, thanks to F. Foster making 15 not out. S. Isaace bowled finely, taking six wickets for 13, while J. Steele took two for nothing, R. Thorne one for six, and G. Selby one for 17. Going in a second time, Horton showed a little improvement; but neither of the side reached double figures, and they were all out for 31. The bowlers this time to do the damage were K. Clarke (five for 14), G. Polden (three for 13), and S. Kitto (two for three). Wimborne went in a second time wanting eight runs for victory. FIRST INNINGS POINTS FOR DEVON.

FIRST INNINGS POINTS FOR DEVON.

The match between Devon and Dorset at Blandford ended on Tuesday in a draw, after Devon had compelled the home county to follow on.

There was a moderate attendance of spectators
when the match opened on Monday morning.
The Dovonshire players went to the wickets, and kept the home team in the field until within halfan-hour of the close of play for the day.

The play in the opening stages of the name was rather slow, the batsmen exercising considerable caution. The Dorset fielders were also on the alert. The first Devon wicket fell when the score stood at 29.

alert. The stood at 29.

After the luncheon interval the batting became more brisk, and as the afternoon went on some good fast scoring was witnessed. Carroll, Outram, and Goldie each made over half-a-century before they were dismissed. The latter was caught and bowled by Busk, who cleverly secured a high return from the bateman nearly half-way up the wicket.

return from the bateman nearly nail-way up the wicket.

The Devon innings finished just before 0.30 o'clock, and soon after Outran and Brockway went in to open the Dorset innings. Shortly after the innings commenced, the latter player received a hard blow on the foot, which caused him considerable pain. He continued to play. When the stumps were drawn at 7 p.m. the Dorset total was nine runs for the loss of no wickets. wickets.

Donser's Struggle,

the Blandford pro, was quickly disposed of, being caught by Carroll off Bovill. Play went on steadily until the luncheon interval, when the steadily until the luncheon interval, when encore was 18 for four.

Mores showed promise of making a good stand, but like several of his predecessors he was a victim of Falding's bowling, his score of 25 including two 0's and a 1 in one over. Jowett, who also hit three 6's, and Elderton looked like continuing a useful partnership and so saving the "follow on," but, unfortunately, Elderton was disposed of before this could be accomplished. Jowett was 34 not out.

For Devon—Busk took 2 for 59, Harris 3 for 72, Foot 1 for 50, Jowett 3 for 67, and Brockway 1 for 40.

DORSET'S VICTORY.

FIGHTING INNINGS AGAINST CORNWALL.

A FINE PARTNERSHIP.

A FINE PARTNERSHIP.

Thanks largely to a fighting innings by G. C. Tovey (76), well supported by E. M. Morres (61 not out). Dorset on Thursday defeated Cornwall by four wickets in the Minor Counties game at Liskeard.

Until Tovey went to the wicket Cornwall were doing quite well, five wickets being down for 112, and having regard to the fact that Dorset had to get 225 runs to win the position of the home county was not unfavourable. It was at this stage, however, that the principal Cornish bowlers began to tire.

The partnership between Tovey and Morres realised nearly 100 runs.
Faced with 225 to get to win Dorset did not make a promising start, for in his second over Kendall clean bowled Jowett, who opened with Elderton. At 25 Kendall that Elderton eaught behind the wicket, but Brockway and Jarchow carried the score to 51 before the former was caught by Pickford off Stoneman's slows.

rindall was never comfortable against Kendall, and was liber to the Truro man at 13. Bickford rang the changes at both ends with Kendall. Mill, Stoneman, and Stephens, and at 112 Mill, at square-leg, missed a catch from Jarchow, but the Dorset man was bowled by Stephens at the next delivery.

Tovey batted extremely well, his off-drives being powerful and his placing accurate. Morres was missed at 140 by Barnes on the boundary, but at 207 Tovey was caught at short square-leg by Hosking, having scored a splendid 76. His innings included nine 4's. The new ball was then brought into play, and off the very first delivery Mill dropped Morres in the deep. The Dorset man was then 48, and he went on to make the winning hit past cover point, scoring 61 net out.

Dorset visited Liskeard and met Cornwall in the return match of the Minor Counties Championship on Wednesday and Thursday, and the result of a most interesting contest was another good win for the Dorset men, this time by four wickets. Butting flest, Cornwall totalled 148, Stonoman being top goore with 49; the most successful of the visiting bowlers were A. M. Harrison (four for 44) and S. Jarchow (three for 33). Dorset replied with 115, Brockway being their top scorer with 33. Going in a second time, Cornwall made 191; Harrison again bowling splendidly to get six wickets for 62 runs. Dorset were thus left with the pretty hard task of making 226 runs to win, and they did splendidly. Thanks to brilliant displays by G. C. Tovey (76) and E. M. Morros (61 not out), the winning hit was made with four wickets to spare—and the Dorset men thus completed a double. In the visitors' second innings Brockway had a remarkable escape when he had made 24; a ball from Stoneham lodged between the stumps but failed to remove the bails, much to the batsman's surprise. However, he was caught from the next ball.

DORSET COUNTY CUP (DIVISION I.)

PORTLAND RED TRIANGLE AND OL D PARKSTONIAND MATCH DRAWN.

Portland Red Triangle and Old Parkstonians in the final of the County Cup (Division I.) competition attracted a good attendance to the Dorehester Grammar School Ground on Saturday afternoon. The ground, which was kindly loaned by Mr. R. W. Hill (headmaster), is ideally situated, and was in excellent condition; the weather, too, was gloriously fine, although there was a rather strong wind blowing up the pitch. The Portlanders batted first, Cotty and Tompkins facing the attack of Dawson and Bromby. Both batsmen opened steadily, occasionally getting in some nice outs, and an early stand seemed ovident. A change of bowling, however, altered matters somewhat, for, after snicking a four, Tompkins made a poor stroke and was caught by Kellaway after making 11. Cotty continued to bat well until he, too, fell a victim to the exceptionally smart fielding of the Old Parkstonians, being caught by Ewins after contributed a very useful 17. Morgam was responsible for a bright dozon, and then he was out llw to Masters, who, while keeping a beautiful length, was varying his bowling eleverly and keeping the runs down. The next man in, Atherton, had his wickets shatored with a ball from Dawson before he had secored with a ball which came off very quickly and deceivingly. Two left-handers, Sharpe and Moon, then became associated, and scoring was very slow. They played very cautiously, and when they did get the ball away they found the fielding very smart. Moon was eventually bowled with a yorker after registering 10 runs, and then Sharpe was joined by the Rev. A. V. Hurley, who knocked up a merry 11 before being clean bowled by Masters. After adding six White also fell a victim to the same bowler. Then came, perhaps, the brightest display of the match. Skinner joined Sharpe, and both batted in fine style, purticularly Skinner. Puns came at a good pace, until they were eventually caught off Bromby's bowling. Skinner's contribution was 20, while Sharpe played an invaluable imings of 23. Hounsell came along with a quickly-hit 12 (not The meeting of Portland Red Triangle and played an invaluable junings of 23. Hounsell came along with a quickly-hit 12 (not out)

The Old Packstonions began their innings after the ten interval with about an hour and a-half left for play. Kellaway (eaptain) who has knocked up some fine scores this season, oponed with Monk, Wiles and Whito being the bowlers. Kellaway soon settled down, and battod in polished style. He beautifully cut a ball from Wiles for four, and there was some quick scoring until Monk was badly run out. Bronchy followed, and, after making 10, was smartly caught behind the wicket by Tompkins. Moon judiciously utilised the bowling at his command, and after changing White for the pavilion end took up the attack himself. White clean bowled Kellaway with a beauty, after the Old Parkstonian had played a sparkling inmings for 39—the highest score of the match. White and Moon continued to bowl well, and Ewins was smartly stumped by Tompkins, who also dismissed Mustors with a wonderful catch after he had made an invaluable 16. Dawson was caught by Sharpe, and then Bickle and Allierd played out time, stumps being drawn at seven o'clook with the Old Parkstonians' total at 89 for six wickets. The duties of unpires were ally carried out by Messrs. W. Bragg and J. Travos. Scores:—

DORSET'S VICTORY.

MONMOUTH LOSE BY TEN WICKETS CENTURIES BY OUTRAM AND TINDALL.

Dorset heat Monmouthshire in the Minor Counties Championship at Newport on Friday by ten wickets. This was Dorset's last fixture in the championship and they have suffered only one defeat in eight matches—this against Wiltshire at Bemerten. Their complete record

Dorset established a big advantage by gaining a lead of five on the first innings for the loss of only one wicket. Monmouthshire's last four butsmen showed the same indecision and lack of confidence as the early men, and in face of the remarkably fine bowling of Brockway, the whole side succumbed for 163 runs. The Dorset professional took six wickets for 43 runs.

Dorset professional took six wickets for 43 runs.

J. I. Outram and Brockway, who opened the Dorset innings, were over-cautious and tedious in their methods. The first 20 runs took 40 minutes to collect. The bowling was by no means formidable, though Allan, the Newport professional, kept a good length. The Monmouthshire fielding was patchy.

Brockway was caught by Hodges in the slips, but R. G. Tindall helped Outram to carry the score to 168 for one wicket at the close of play. Monmouth tried five bowlers, The visitors on Friday closed their innings for 411 for 3 wickets.

Eight Russ to Wis.

Monmouthshire's second innings realised 255, Dorset thus being left to get only eight runs to win, these being obtained in 10 minutes of the extra half-an-hour, in one over.

Despite the torrid heat—it was 93 degrees in the shade—Dorset bowled and fielded admirably.

DEVON SAVE GAME.

FIRST INNINGS POINTS FOR SURREY.

FIRST INNINGS POINTS FOR SURREY.

The Minor Counties game between Dovon and Surrey II, at Torquay ended in a draw, the visitors taking first innings points. Until an hour before the close it looked as if Surrey might achieve an innings victory.

Sheffield, who captured six Devon wickets in the first innings, came on for Merrill with the score at 54, and in his first over cleaned bowled Falding, the ball coming across from the leg to take the middle stump. With three of their principal run-getters out for 54, and still 1½ hours for play, Devon had to fight hard to avoid an innings defeat.

How cautiously Devon batted in their second venture can be judged from the fact that only 20 runs were scored in the first hour, and three hours clapsed before the 100 was on the board.

A remarkable incident occurred during board.

A remarkable incident occurred during Devon's second innings, which produced 111 runs for the loss of four wickets. Seldon, who opened with Major Battersby, came down late on a swerving ball from Merrill, and it appeared as if he played the ball on to his wicket, for the leg and middle stump were disturbed. The Devon hatsman stood looking at the umpire, Newman, for a second or two, and then left his crease, as Newman signalled that he was out.

that he was out that he was out The wicket-keeper. Mobey, however, spoke to the umpire. Seldon was called back, and it transpired that the ball had rebounded on to the stumps off the wicket-keeper's pads Scores : --

WEYMOUTH JUNIOR CHAMPIONS.

DORSET DEPOT DEFEATED.

Weymouth Working Men's Club became winners of the second division of the Dorset Cricket Competition on Saturday by defeating the Dorset Depot, Dorchester, by three wickets in one of the best-fought finals of recent years.

recent years.
The soldiers batted first, and found rungetting against Dowell and Green difficult. Captain Goff provided the only exception, with an excellent innings of 99 Green seemed to have found a spot on the wicket with his medium-fast deliveries, and bothered all batsmen, including Goff. The ball came off the pitch at varying paces and heights. RAIN'S BIG PART.

off the pitch at varying paces and heights.

RAIN'S BIG PART.

The Weymouth team was given just over two hours in which to win, with the possibility of an extra half an hour. Rain played an important part in their win, for after three wickets were down for 51, and when the scoring was proceeding slowly, a sterm interrupted the game. Though a damp ball was a great handicap to his lowlers, especially for his own under-arm spinners. Captain Goff was out of the pavilion before the rain had completely ceased.

Sawdist was used by the bowlers, but the advantage was definitely with the Weymouth team. Six wickets were down for 100, and the Weymouth team was in danger of defeat, but some good hitting by W. Downing (four houndaries in 24) and W. Maynard won the game. J. Green contributed a valuable imnings of 46, which included six 4's. Scores:—

DEVON COLTS.

NORTH BEAT SOUTH IN COUNTY TRIAL.

The final Devon Colts' trial took place at Exeter on Thursday between teams representing public schoolboys of the north and south of the county. The teams were 12 a side, and all the players were under 19 years of age.

The result was a win for the North, who passed their opponents' total of 186 with four wickets in band. An interested spectator was the Dean of Exeter (Dr. R. W. Matthews), whose son, M. H. Maithews, of Westminster School, captained the victors.

On a hard wicket and against moderate bowling none of the batsmen seemed inclined to force the game, though the majority reached double figures. There was a lack of talent among the bowlers, not one of whom had a fast delivery. The only player to meet with any success was F. R. Churchill, of Barnstaple Grammar School, a medium-placed right-armed bowler, who took 8 South wickets for 36 runs.

South Collarse.

The opening batsmen for the South were dismissed rather cheaply, three wickets having fallen for 37. With the association of L. Oliver (Plymouth P.O.) and G. P. Holmes (Allhallows) runs came more freely, but with 100 on the board Oliver was taken at mid-off by Churchill, The majority of Oliver's runs were obtained with well-timed strokes behind the wicket. J. B. Glennic (Newton College), who followed, settled down quickly, Holmes meanwhile Latted with more restraint and survived one appeal for lbw. When Holmes and Glennie had been dismissed the South collapsed and were all out for 186.

WEYMOUTH WEDNESDAY XI. v. TAUNTON OVERSEAS.

WEYMOUTH WEDNESDAY XI. v.
TAUNTON OVERSEAS.

A most interesting and enjoyable match was played at Lodmoor on Wednesday, when Weymouth Wednesday XI. were opposed by a toam of Taunton schoolboys (visiting Weymouth) whose parents are living overseas. After a very exciting finish, the visitors won by 12 runs. The Taunton side, batting first, opened badly, losing three wickets for four runs; but after that there was a decided improvement, A. G. Griffiths (35), H. D. Ling (21), M. Georgiardi (14), W. R. Williams (22 not out), and G. C. Strivens (11) batting so well in turn that the total reached 124. Strangely enough, the home opening batsmen also failed, four wickets going down for 11 runs. However, there was a different complexion when W. H. Cumming and I. Powell got going, the former making 36 and the latter 40. C. K. Brockman, too, did well to get 17 not out, and there appeared a chance after all that the Wednesday side would pull the game off; but the tail did not rise to the occasion, and when the last wicket fell the total—112—was 12 short of Taunton's. Of the Weymouth bowlers, I. Powell took four wickets for 46 runs, P. Crimmins two for nine, and J. Hawkins two for 15. Some good bowling was put in for the visitors by J. H. Cameron (five for 53) and M. R. Strivens (four for 38). Scores:—

DORCHESTER v. WEYMOUTH.

DORCHESTER V. WEYMOUTH. GOOD BATTING.

Good Batting.

Dorchester played their last match of the season on Saturday, when they were visited by their old opponents, the Weymouth C.C. Possibly there is no fixture on the card of either club which is looked forward to with more interest than this, for both teams are assured of a keen and sporting match—and this was certainly again the case on Saturday. Dorchester were the first to bat, and an excellent first-wicket stand was seen. A. Mayo and G. White were in splendid form, and they were not separated until 116 runs had been registered, White then being caught by Bond off Paul, having compiled a delightful 80. Mayo "carried on the good work" to contribute run 87 by some beautiful cricket, when he was dismissed by Luckham. With the total at 204 for six wickets, Dorchester applied the closure. Weymouth started badly, two wickets going down very quickly, but a good stand by J. Thomas and C. A. G. Luckham altered matters, the former making a useful 23 and the latter batting splendidly for 51. Then I. Powell (not out 14) and A. C. Savage (not out 18) played out time, and when stumps were drawn the total and reached 115 for four wickets. Scores: time, and when stumps were drawn the total had reached 115 for four wickets. PRESENTATION TO MR. C. W. GUPPY. There was a pleasing little ceremony during the tea interval, when a presentation was made to the Dorchester umpire. Mr. G. H. White, on behalf of the members of the Saturday team and those of the Thursday team associated with it, referred to the fact that for soveral seasons past up to that afternoon the Dorchester club had been fortunate anough to receive the vigilar description. that for soveral seasons past up to that aftermoon the Dorchester club had been fortunate enough to receive the valued services of Mr. C. W. Guppy as their umpire. As they were all aware, the umpire's task was not altogether an enviable one, but Mr. Guppy, by his fair and impartial rulings, had gained the confidence and respect not only of every member of the Dorchester club, but also of every member of the teams they had met, and on their behalf he thanked him very sincerely for the valuable services he had rendered. The speaker said he had great pleasure in asking Mr. Guppy's acceptance of a wristlet watch and walking stick from the Dorchester club, with the hope that he would be spared many years to continue as their umpire. Mr. W. H. Cumming, on behalf of the Weymouth C.C., said they would like to associate themselves with the romarks of Mr. White. Mr. Guppy, who was warmly received, made a suitable reply. Bridport News: Friday 11 November 1932.

Dorset Cricket.

YOUNG PLAYERS WHO HAVE MADE GOOD.

FAST BOWLER NEEDED.

DORSET, finishing fifth in the Minor Countles Championship for 1932, has had the most successful season for many years. and it is particularly gratifying that last year's task of building up a young side has borne such good results.

The annual report states that the form shown by the younger players has more than justified the expectation of last season, and it justified the expectation of last season, and it is hoped that they will be permanent members of the eleven in the future.

For the eight matches last year, when Dorset occupied 15th place in the championship table, 26 players were called upon, whilst this year for the same number of matches only 19 were required. But for unavoidable injuries the number would have been less. Except in the first innings of both the matches against Wiltshire, the batting has never broken down badly, and the side, as a whole, has not had to rely on two or three run-makers only. two or three run-makers only.

CAPT. BUSK'S DISTINCTION.

capt. R. D. Busk, with 108 not out against Devon, has now succeeded in making a century against every county that Dorset plays. Outram, unfortunately, had to come straight back from the tropics and a long sea voyage, and, consequently, took some little time to settle down, but at the enu of the tour had run into his best form. Tovey, Tindall and Morres have all had a most successful season in batting, whilst Brockway, as more than a useful all-ro nder, will be a definite acquisition to the side be many years.

Considering the "plumb" wicket of the past season, the bowling has held its own, and only in the return match against Wiltshire was it ever in serious difficulties, but if the county is really to be successful on hard wickets a fast bowler must be discovered. As usual, A. M. Harrl. Dn., who first played for the county in 1906, has been the mainstay and mainspring of the attack, and his 47 wickets for 15 runs apiece in 407 overs was a very great achievement.

The fielding department of the game, so often overlooked and neglected, has throughout been uniformly brilliant, and accounts in no small measure for the successful season.

SUCCESS AGAINST CORNWALL AND MONMOUTH

SUCCESS AGAINST CORNWALL

SUCCESS AGAINST CORNWALL AND MONMOUTH.

Cornwall and Monmouth were both beaten twice, whilst the one defeat was at the hands of Wiltshire, who also took first innings points in the return game. First innings points were secured by Devon at Blandford, but this decision was reversed at Plymouth.

Thus the season ends on a note of distinct optimism. The captain, M. B. Elderton, who led the side magnificently, kept wicket in his best form In the eight games he only conceded 54 byes and caught or stumped 27.

In order to endeavour to stimulate more interest in the club, a meeting of the members and all cricket enthusiasts in the county is to be held at the Shirehall, Dorchester, on Friday, the 0th December, at 3 p.m.

CRICKET IN DORSET

Greater Interest in County Club next Season

PROFESSIONAL ENGAGED: FESTIVAL AT WEYMOUTH IN SUMMER

Definite moves for the improvement of cricket in the county of Dorset have been made during the past few months, and it is cortain that next season will see a greater interest taken in this, our greatest national game, especially as regards the County Cricket Club. The Dorset team will be strengthened and an opportunity will be given for young blood to have expert cosching by the engagement of a professional for 1633. A great "cricket week" will be held at Weymouth during the August Bank-holiday period, when it is expected that hundreds of Dorset people and holiday-malers will be present to see the county club in two attractive fixtures. In addition a step will probably be taken to encourage the youthful talent attending the grammar and secondary schools, by professional tuition under the guidance of the county association.

Next season's excellent programme was announced at Dorchester on Friday at a special meeting of Dorset cricket leaders, called "for the purpose of inducing people in the county to take more interest in cricket and the county club."

and the county club."

In the unavoidable absence of the county president (Lord Shaftesbury) and the vice-president (Colonel Sir Robert Williams) the chair was taken by Captain Angus V. Hambro. There were also present the county hon. secretary (Colonel W. Hatton Budgo), Captain R. D. Busk, General R. M. Poore, Lord Wynford, Major H. J. Grovee Messrs. P. F. C. Williams, G. H. White, B. Brewin, W. Hardy Manfield, H. Harding, Dr. F. B. Fisher, Messrs. A. C. Savago and D. J. Gould (spurtsmaster, Poole Grammar School). Several apologies for absence were received.

Colonel Hatton Budge, explaining that Grammar School). Several apologies for absence were received.

Colonel Hatton Budge, explaining that the object of the meeting was to try and induce people to give more support to the County Cricket Club, said that the committee at a meeting in October decided to endeavour next year to create more interest. All cricketers were to be induced to try to support their county more than had been done in the past, and it was decided next year to carry out schemes which the committee had in view, which included the coaching of boys in secondary and other schools. The suggestion was put forward that a county professional be engaged, and they were to try and find ways and means to pay his salary. It was considered that Breckway, of Blandford, would be a suitable choice, as he was believed to have the makings of a very fine cricketer. The climax came when he had an offer to go to a Lancashire League club. Brockway consulted Captain Hambro and Colonel Hutton Budge, who felt that they could not stand in his way. If he had gone it would have been a great loss to the county, but through the generosity of Captain Hambro they had been able to save Brockway for Dorset cricket. The county club would have to find between 460 and 470 in wages and Captain Hambro would provide the balance. The professional would play for the Blandford club, but he would also coach at secondary schools around the Blandford and Poole districts.

TWO "PROS" WANTED.

TWO "PROS" WANTED.

TWO "PROS" WANTED.

The idea of the county club was to have two professionals, one for the east and north of the county and the other for the sou th and west, so that a coaching scheme could be arranged for the boys. The Oxford Movement had been a success in every centre in which it had been worked and they would realise how useful and important it was in county cricket circles.

Announcing the inauguration of a county "cricket week" at Weymouth, Colonel Hatton Budge said that there would be two matches in four days, the first on Friday and Saturday and the other on Bank Holiday Monday and the Tuesday following. They were doing what had been done in Bournemouth and other resorts, and if they could get the support of the people in Weymouth and Dorchester and the surrounding places it was hoped to have four very successful days. The headmaster of Weymouth College had placed the ground at their disposal on certain terms. If the Weymouth Corporation would appreciate the club's venture, which would be good for the town, the festival ought to be a success, but if it were left entirely to the county club the hon. secretary did not think it would be the success hoped for.

The committee meeting also discussed ways and means of raising fresh subscriptions. It was considered that one collector was inadequate. It was only by personal contact that fresh subscriptions could be obtained and if every member could guarantee to get one new subscriber it would dispense with any financial worries.

any financial worries.

any financial worries.

Speaking on the financial position of the club, he said that Dorset was about the only club in the minor competition which had a favourable balance. During the last three years there had been a balance, and to-day the club was in a satisfactory financial condition. There was £120 in the deposit account and £50 in the current account, and £80 allocation as £20 allocation.

condution. There was $120 in the deposit account and $50 in the current account, and last week there was a £20 allocation from the M.C.C., from the Test Matches and two Test trials last year.

They were going to engage Brockway, and the £120 would be swallowed up, so they must look elsewhere to get more support. Captain Hambro suggested that the club ought to try to localise the collection of subscription. They should have some scheme for dividing the county into districts, each area having its separate organisers.

Captain Busk said his method was to lock in a directory every three years and send eletter (to new arrivals who were probable subscribers. It was only a circular letter, however, and he agreed that it was the personal touch that was needed. By this way he managed to get 25 to 30 new subscribers throughout the county. If there was a representative in each area, however, he could ask new arrivals, and that would be much better.

could ask new arrivals, and that would be much better.

The issuing of sectional tickets was suggested by Mr. P. F. C. WILLILMS. In Gloucoster the scheme had worked well. A ticket could be issued for the four days at Weymouth and another ticket for those who desired to be present only at the Sherborne and Blandford matches next year. They had found it most useful in Gloucoster and definite canvassers had been appointed. These were given a small commission. Country people did not really take much interest in county cricket, but the townspeople could be induced to support the club by the means suggested.

Mr. B. Brewin, of Weymouth, said that he was very pleased the committee had given the town two matches, and he thought that the Weymouth Corporation, Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, and such bodies might give practical support if approached. He gave as an example seats. All expenses such as this could be wiped out if the bodies were approached in the proper way. Mr. Brewin suggested that a large sheet "Weymouth Cricket Week" could be erected in the town.

After further discussion it was decided to ask the following to obtain subscriptions in their respective areas:—Weymouth, Mr. W. H. Manfield and Mr. B. Brewin; Portland, Mr. A. C. Savage; West Dorset, Captain R. D. Busk, Mr. P. F. C. Williams, and Mr. E. Gundry; Dorchester, Major R. O. Bridgeman, Dr. Fisher, Mr. G. H. White, and Mr. H. Harding; Gillingham, Mr. Carlton Cross; Swanage, Mr. E. M. Morres; Blandford, Captain Hambro; Sherborne, Mr. M. B. Elderton; Poole and Warcham, Colonel Budge; Wimborne, General Poore, Wareham, Colonel Budge; Wimborne, General Poore.

The Hon. Secretary said the organisation of the collection of subscriptions would be left entirely to the committees in the different areas.

"MORE ADVERTISING WANTED."

Mr. BREWIN said that one trouble Mr. Brewin said that one trouble in connection with the lack of interest was that the club did not advertise enough. They ought to have notices in 'buses all over the county. Dr. Fisher added that very few people in Dorchester knew when a coorry match was being played. Colonel HATTON BUDGE explained that one difficulty was the question of expense. Another MEMBEB said that in the old days they advertised rather heavily, but now expense stopped them. They certainly had more matches now, but less profit.

Captain Busk asked if printed slips could be sent round the village clubs. It was the people who played themselves who were most likely to see county cricket.

The Secretary said that every hotel and restaurant in the county exhibited a list of county fixtures.

It was also suggested that posters should be put up a few weeks before the matches. Mr. Brewin: You cannot run a county club unless you do spend money:

Colonel Hatton Budge: Now we are out of debt let us keep out.

Mr. WILLIAMS said that they could not possibly get a crowd unless money was spent. He had been to Weymouth without knowing there was a match on.

GENERAL POORE'S ADVICE.

General Poore, speaking on the play last season, said he knew that the team had a very good position, but at the same time everything did not run smoothly and there had been much adverse criticism. There was a certain number who ought to be in the team but would not play, and he did not think that the club got the benefit of the material in the county. He took the case of a certain fast bowler, who was tried, unfortunately, on a wicket which did not suit him and was then dropped. They in Dorset could ill afford to be without a fast bowler. They wanted to get some system to make sure the players would come when asked to play. He had watched the play of the county team and was perfectly convinced that there was material to make the club a great deal better. They ought to tackle the obstacles. They must not have players standing down; it was nonsonse. Coaching would cost something like £200 a year, and this question needed handling carefully. Referring to Brockway he thought they would find him a much better player next year, and he was going to be an extremely valuable asset. They would find if the team was more successful they would have no difficulty with the subscriptions. Dorset had very good reports from the umpires and had been given the credit of being the nicest team to umpire for. One striking factor about the play, said General Poore, was that there was no plan of action to get the opposing teams out. He gave the Yorkshire team as an example of a side with a fixed plan, and he advised Dorset to follow suit with a little plan of action as it would help a good deal. If he had said anything nasty it was only because he had come to improve the team. He had coaching classes of his own, and he invited men who wanted to improve their play to make use of these.

Mr. Manyield Desire it could not be said that Dorset had a poor team. At times it was a good side and many promising young batsmen had been played and were a great success.

success.

Mr. Brewin, who was the scorer last year, spoke of the team's fine rallies, especially in the match with Cornwall when it seemed absolutely lost. He had never seen a team get on top of another so well.

EVERY PLAYER GIVEN CHANCE.

EVERY PLAYER GIVEN CHANCE. Captain Busk said it might appear doubtful with regard to how the team was actually selected. The selection committee was composed of men who had played for some time and who knew the current form of the players in the county. There were many people who had extremely good analyses in local cricket and if any one appeared to be an exceptionally good player he was often given a fair trial in a county match. The election committee were only too anxious to get new cricketers. Most of the counties had the same players for a good many years and some knew each others' play, therefore they were only too glad to get new talent. Replying to General Poore, Captain Busk said there was consultation with the captain about plan of action and they were not haphazard in any way whatever in this connection. He did not agree that there were not naphazard in any way wintever in this connection. He did not agree that there was no plan. The captain was extremely anxious to find new talent and last season there were four players who had never played for the county before and they had been there were four players who had never played for the county before and they had been most successful. They were building up a young team, which should be a good one in the future. What they were really trying to find was a fast bowler, and if anyone could produce such a player the place was waiting for him.

Mr. Harding said he understood the club was going to give some encouragement to schools, and particularly elementary schools. The hon, secretary replied that if they could get financial support they would do all the construction.
